

Round 1 - First Half

2022-23 Elementary Practice Questions

1. Essentially, this work is a play whose dialogue is sung instead of spoken. The performers act out the story onstage as an orchestra accompanies them from a pit. What is this drama set to music, examples of which are The Magic Flute and Carmen?

OPERA

2. This man's Second Inaugural Address urged U.S. citizens to act, quote, "with malice toward none [and] with charity for all." At Illinois's Republican State Convention, he cautioned, quote, "A house divided against itself cannot stand." Identify this 16th U.S. president, who also wrote and delivered the "Gettysburg Address."

(ABRAHAM) LINCOLN

3. Use your knowledge of negative numbers to answer this question. Consider the number negative 5 and 632 thousandths (-5.632). What is the next integer smaller than negative 5 and 632 thousandths?

NEGATIVE SIX

4. Applying force to an object will often produce a stress response in the form of a fracture or a break. What is the scientific term for the force required to stretch, pull or stress a substance or object to the point to just before it breaks?

TENSILE STRENGTH

5. This Kentucky college was founded in 1855 by a minister. It was the first integrated college in the South. What college is the site of the KAAC summer camps?

BEREA (COLLEGE)

6. This musical element is the reason two different instruments playing the same note still sound different. Listeners may describe it as "mellow," "reedy," or "brassy." What is this characteristic sound of a particular voice or instrument?

TIMBRE [TAM-ber] (Accept TONE COLOR)

7. How many words should be capitalized in the following sentence? Do you want to go to the movies on Saturday?

TWO

8. Happy Wheels Bike shop donated 36 tricycle wheels to the Wheels for Fun. Wheels for Fun needs two wheels for each tricycle that they repair. How many tricycles can be repaired with the donated wheels?

18 (TRICYCLES)

9. First proposed by Gallileo, this property of matter was used to describe horizontal motion. In simplest terms, it suggests that an object in motion will stay in motion and an object at rest will stay at rest unless it encounters another object or force. Name this property of matter.

INERTIA

10. Ten pre-state conventions were held in this city between 1784 and 1792. What Boyle County city hosted Kentucky's Constitutional Convention in April 1792?

DANVILLE

11. This broad musical grouping includes pop, metal, jazz, and hip-hop. It applies to any music not meant for religious use. What is this opposite of sacred music?

SECULAR (MUSIC)

12. This Newbery-winning novel blends science fiction with Mexican folklore. In it, Petra Peña becomes the only comet strike survivor who can remember what life was like on Earth. Name this novel by Donna Barba Higuera [hee-GAIR-uh].

(THE) LAST CUENTISTA [kwayn-TEE-stah]

13. This question requires multiple answers. Compute the first three positive multiples of 12.

12, 24, 36

14. Electromagnetic radiation is typically invisible without specialized instruments. What can be described as any sort of electromagnetic radiation that can be detected by our eyes?

(VISIBLE) LIGHT

15. This is the longest mountain system in the United States. What mountains located in the western United States contains several mountain ranges?

ROCKY (MOUNTAINS) (ACCEPT: ROCKIES)

16. In appearance and construction, this instrument resembles the euphonium and the helicon. John Philip Sousa modified the instrument's design to create the sousaphone for marching bands. Identify this largest and lowest-pitched brass instrument.

TUBA

17. This character is born on an island full of other so-called "unimaginary friends." He leaves for the real world, where he meets his human child Alice. Name this protagonist of a Caldecott-winning picture book by Dan Santat [SAN-tat].

BEEKLE

18. This answer must be a mixed number in lowest terms. Determine the difference between ten and two-thirds and eight and one-sixth.

2 1/2 (TWO AND ONE-HALF)

19. Oftentimes, people searching for precious minerals will come across a deceptive material that shines like metal in the sun. With a name that comes from the Latin pyr meaning fire, what is the scientific name of fool's gold?

PYRITE

20. Over 34% of the U.S. population is older than this age. What age people are a half-century old?

50 (YEAR OLDS)

21. Dancer Martha Graham commissioned this ballet, which earned the Pulitzer Prize for Music in 1945. It dramatizes a 19th-century Pennsylvania pioneer celebration. Give the name of this Aaron Copland ballet.

APPALACHIAN SPRING

22. This poet captured a child's perceptions in "My Shadow." He published that poem with more than 60 others in A Child's Garden of Verses. Name this author, who also wrote the novel Treasure Island.

(ROBERT LOUIS) STEVENSON

23. The paper weighed 300 grams. What is the weight in grams of six percent of the paper?

18 (GRAMS)

24. Robert Dietz and Harry Hess developed a theory about the Earth's crust that involves crustal plates. What is the name of this theory that explains the why and how of volcanoes and mountains?

(THE THEORY OF) PLATE TECTONICS

25. This group of Native Americans called themselves the Real People. They were also called cave people by the Mohawks. Who were these Native American people who used Mammoth Cave for shelter?

CHEROKEE

26. This element determines the sequence of a dance's events. Rhythm, tempo, beat, accent, and patterns all fall under this heading. Name this element that may be felt or may be strictly measured by a clock.

TIME

27. At the beginning of this novel, a 7-year-old plants a bag of magical crocodile tongues. The resulting tree bears fruit so massive that the boy crawls into it and floats from England to America. This is the plot of which Roald Dahl [ROO-all DOLL] book?

JAMES AND THE GIANT PEACH

28. You must move your piece in 25 seconds in the game Faster is Better. Elijah moves his piece in one-fourth of a minute. How many more seconds could he have taken to move?

10 (SECONDS)

29. The solar system is made up of many moving bodies of various shapes and sizes. In ancient Greece, those who studied the night sky called one such group of bodies "wanderers". Which heavenly bodies change their position relative to the stars?

PLANETS

30. This colony was founded for religious freedom. What colony founded by Lord Baltimore provided a place for Catholics to worship?

MARYLAND

END OF FIRST HALF – Begin three minute inquiry period

Round 1 - Second Half

2022-23 Elementary Practice Questions

1. This man earned Best Director and Best Choreographer Tony Awards for Fiddler on the Roof. He also choreographed High Button Shoes, On the Town, and Wonderful Town. Who was this choreographer of both the film and stage versions of West Side Story?

(JEROME) ROBBINS

2. In some poems, this sound device has a so-called "scheme." Limericks and nursery rhymes have this element, but blank verse doesn't. What is this crafting of identical end sounds, as in "dog" and "frog"?

RHYME

3. This convex polygon has ten vertices. It has ten interior angles. Which polygon has ten sides?

DECAGON

4. Cells are organized with small, working parts that work as a team to perform all of the functions of the cell. What is the name for these small components, examples of which are the nucleus, mitochondria, and lysosomes?

ORGANELLES

5. Kentucky was one of these states during the Civil War. What were slave states called that did not secede from the Union?

BORDER STATES

6. It took over 37,000 hours to create this musical's masks, puppets, and costumes. It features the songs "I Just Can't Wait to Be King," "Can You Feel the Love Tonight," and "Circle of Life." Identify this Disney musical in which Timon [tih-MOHN] and Pumbaa teach Simba the phrase "Hakuna Matata" [uh-KOO-nuh muh-TAH-tuh].

(THE) LION KING

7. This tall tale man's younger--and much smaller--brother was Cordwood Pete. He set off from Maine and crossed the upper U.S., where he felled trees from the Midwest to the Pacific. Name this lumberjack owner of Babe the Blue Ox.

(PAUL) BUNYAN

8. A triangle has one angle larger than 90 degrees. It has two angles that are each smaller than 90 degrees. Based on the size of the angles, what name is given to this triangle?

OBTUSE (TRIANGLE)

9. This type of grass is of the genus Poa and is native to Europe, Asia, Africa, and North America. What is the common name for this type of grass, most well-known for being abundant in Kentucky?

BLUE GRASS

10. This civil rights activist's actions started the Montgomery bus boycott. What seamstress refused to give up her seat to white passengers on a city bus in 1955?

(ROSA) PARKS

11. Encaustic painting mixes this heated substance with pigments. Batik [buh-TEEK] produces fabric patterns by taking advantage of this substance's resistance to dye. Identify this material made artificially from petroleum or naturally by bees.

WAX

12. The Latin root "aqua" is part of the words "aquarium" and "aquatic." Give its English meaning.

WATER

13. Mrs. Jenkins needs to buy enough quilt binding to go all the way around a quilt. She is making a quilt that is 36 inches long and 24 inches wide. How many inches of quilt binding does she need?

120 (INCHES)

14. Zoologists use this term to describe an organism with three pairs of legs, three body divisions, and typically two pairs of wings. They also have exoskeletons. What is the general name for this group of invertebrate animals which include flies, mosquitoes, fleas and beetles, to name a few?

INSECT(S)

15. This national legislative body meets in the Capitol in Washington, D.C. What lawmaking body includes the U.S. House of Representatives and the Senate?

CONGRESS

16. During the Renaissance, oil paints largely replaced this type of paint. It forms a film as it rapidly dries. Give the name of this paint made of pigment, water, and egg yolk.

TEMPERA

17. As a verb, this word can be a synonym of "abandoned" or "departed." Identify this word that, as an adjective, is the opposite of "right."

LEFT

18. Tommy needs to choose what he will wear to school tomorrow. He can choose from 4 shirts, 2 pairs of shorts, and 3 pairs of shoes. How many possible outfits can he choose?

24 (POSSIBLE OUTFITS)

19. This substance is considered organic because it is produced by a living thing and is formed from partly organic substances. What is this precious gemstone, often found in certain mollusks, such as oysters?

PEARL

20. This document is issued by the U.S. government to its citizens. What document allows citizens to travel outside the country?

PASSPORT

21. Multiple answer required. They created the Mona Lisa, a marble David, a bronze David, and The School of Athens. Which four Renaissance artists lent their names to the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles?

LEONARDO, MICHELANGELO, DONATELLO, (AND) RAPHAEL (any order)

22. Identify the complete subject of the following sentence: The talented, graceful ballerinas twirled across the stage.

THE TALENTED, GRACEFUL BALLERINAS

23. A number sequence begins 1, 2, 5, 10, 17 Find the next number in the sequence.

26 (TWENTY-SIX)

24. The human body is comprised of multiple systems working together. The cardiovascular system, for example, is responsible for transporting nutrients throughout the body. What major system of the human body provides support and protection?

SKELETAL (SYSTEM)

25. This tax is usually due on April 15th. What tax is collected by the IRS?

INCOME (TAX)

26. This painting premiered at the Spanish Republican Pavilion during the 1937 World's Fair in Paris. In black, white, and grey tones, it shows a bull, a horse, and anguished people. What was this protest of a Basque village's bombing, created by Pablo Picasso?

GUERNICA [gair-NEEK-uh]

27. How many prepositional phrases are part of the following sentence? The puppy at the park ran around the tree and down to the pond.

THREE

28. This question requires multiple answers. Identify the constants in this equation, "x plus 3 equals 23"?

3, 23

29. Literally translated, this term means the study of things high in the air. What is the term for the study weather?

METEOROLOGY

30. This speech was delivered at the dedication of a cemetery. What speech by Abraham Lincoln begins "Fourscore and seven years ago"?

GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

END OF ROUND SECOND HALF – Begin three minute inquiry period

EXTRA QUESTIONS

AH. Some Native American tribes in California traditionally built this vessel out of reeds. More common examples were the dugout and birch bark varieties. Identify this slender, open boat that made war, trade, and transport easier.

CANOE

LA. Spelling required. A new bicycle was my reward for earning straight A's. Spell the word in the preceding sentence that is a synonym of "prize."

R-E-W-A-R-D

MA. Multiple answers. Consider the equation: $4x$ plus $3y$ equals 24. What are the variables in the equation?

X, Y (EITHER ORDER)

SC. This 19th century Swedish scientist worked in a military equipment factory during the Crimean War. During this time, he began experimenting with explosives. Name this scientist, the inventor of dynamite, for whom yearly prizes for physics, medicine, and chemistry are named.

(ALFRED) NOBEL

SS. This funeral was attended by royals, world leaders, and other dignitaries. It was watched by millions over live television. What monarch's funeral was held on September 19, 2022?

(QUEEN) ELIZABETH (THE SECOND)