

Round 14 - First Half

2022-23 Elementary Practice Questions

1. This book precedes two other novels subtitled At the Edge of the World and The End of Time. Its hero is an orphaned boy who learns that his father was a wealthy man. Name this medieval-set novel, which earned a Newbery Medal for Avi.

CRISPIN(: THE CROSS OF LEAD)

2. Helen drew a section of a number line that started with negative 10 and ended with positive 4. What number is located in the center of the number line?

NEGATIVE 3

3. This musical symbol's name comes from the Italian for "stop" or "stay." It consists of a dot with a curved line atop it. Name this so-called "birdseye" that means a musician should hold a note longer than its normal duration.

FERMATA [fur-MAH-tuh]

4. Just below Louisville, the falls of this river makes water travel difficult. Its name comes from the Seneca word meaning "Good River." What is the river that forms the northern boundary of Kentucky?

OHIO (RIVER)

5. If you mix a gallon of water with a cup of salt, you will make a mixture. However, since water has a different boiling point than salt, the mixture can be easily separated back into its original components. Scientifically speaking, what type of change did mixing water and salt represent?

PHYSICAL (CHANGE)

6. This picture book's images include a sea turtle with seashells on its back and a blue eye staring at a hermit crab. In it, a young boy discovers an underwater world thanks to a waterproof camera. Identify this Caldecott winner by David Wiesner [WEEZ-nur].

FLOTSAM

7. On Monday 45 schools registered for Governor's Cup. On Wednesday 17 more schools registered. How many schools registered on those two days?

62 (SCHOOLS)

8. The string one of these ensembles traditionally consists of two violins, a viola, and a cello. A vocal one may have a soprano, alto, tenor, and bass. Give the word for a group of, or a piece written for a group of, four musicians.

QUARTET

9. Legend claims that he was the first white man to explore Kentucky. This young man was wounded and captured by the Shawnee in Northern Kentucky. What man was saved from burning at the stake by a Shawnee chief who adopted him.

(GABRIEL) ARTHUR

10. If you slide across a smooth floor in socks, you will move easily at first, and then stop. When you stop, you may notice that the force acting against you has warmed the soles of your feet, almost like you do when you rub your hands together. Name this force, that resists the motion of two surfaces that are touching.

FRICTION

11. This poetic form's most famous example is likely "Snow" by Adelaide Crapsey, the form's inventor. Its lines have two, four, six, eight, and two syllables. Name this unrhymed five-line poem.

CINQUAIN [sing-KANE]

12. Compare the multiples of the numbers 7, 4, and 2. What is the lowest common multiple of the three numbers?

28 (TWENTY-EIGHT)

13. This word can refer to a woodwind class subdivided into fipple and transverse types. The piccolo is the modern orchestra's smallest and highest-pitched example of one. What is this metal woodwind held parallel to the floor and played by directing a stream of air against a sharp edge?

FLUTE

14. This reference book is named for the Titan that held the Earth on his shoulders. Worldinmaps.com is an electronic version of this book. What is a book of maps and charts?

ATLAS

15. Magnets are objects that attract some metal. All magnets have two special regions where the magnetic pull is strongest. What is the name given to these regions that can be found in every magnet?

(NORTH AND SOUTH) POLES

16. This 11-year-old orphan moves to Beldingsville, Vermont, to live with her spinster aunt. She plays the "glad game," but temporarily loses her optimism when an accident leaves her paralyzed. Name this happy creation of Eleanor H. Porter.

POLLYANNA (WHITTIER)

17. Three and four-ninths balls of yarn lay in the basket. Fluffy unwound one and one-third balls. As a mixed number, how many balls of yarn were NOT unwound by the kitten?

2 $\frac{1}{9}$ (TWO AND ONE-NINTH BALLS OF YARN)

18. This opera's characters include the magician Sarastro [suh-ROSS-troh] and the Queen of the Night. At its conclusion, Papageno [pa-puh-GAY-noh] and Papagena love each other, as do Tamino and Pamina. Masonic symbols are found throughout which Mozart work about an enchanted instrument?

(THE) MAGIC FLUTE

19. This state's population has grown more than any other state's population between 2010 and 2020 according to the 2020 census. What state has its capital at Austin?

TEXAS

20. This soft, rock is made of many layers of sediment pushed together. Due to its clay-like origin, pieces of vegetation can often be trapped in between the layers, leaving it with abundant fossils. Name this type of rock that, over time, will become slate.

SHALE

21. Your friend uses this figure of speech when she says, "I'm so hungry I could eat a horse!" What is this over-the-top exaggeration, often for humorous effect?

HYPERBOLE [hi-PER-buh-lee]

22. Multiple answers. Two numbers are in the ratio 4:3. The sum of the two numbers is 14. What are the two numbers?

8, 6 (EIGHT, SIX) (NOTE: ORDER NOT IMPORTANT)

23. The Romantic type of this dance costume reached to within 12 inches of the floor. Throughout the 1800s, it was shortened until almost the entire leg became visible. Name this frilly, multi-layered skirt worn by ballerinas.

TUTU

24. This group of South American people ruled an empire in the Andes Mountains. They left no written records of their early civilization. What civilization was led by Atahualpa?

INCA

25. While weather changes from hour-to-hour, week-to-week, or month to month, one environmental condition tends to remain relatively stable. Defined as the cumulative weather patterns over the course of an extended period of time, give the name for this scientific descriptor, examples of which may be mild, temperate, or rainy.

CLIMATE

26. Legends claim this creature sings campfire songs as it mimics a human voice. Only whiskey can calm an angry one, and lumberjacks supposedly wore stovepipes to protect their legs from attacks by these cryptids. What is this mythical rabbit/deer hybrid?

(THE) JACKALOPE

27. One mile equals 1,760 yards. How many feet are in one mile?

5,280 (FEET)

28. This director and choreographer earned a special Oscar for his contributions to film musicals. He both choreographed and starred in An American in Paris. Who was this choreographer, co-director, and co-star of Singin' in the Rain?

(GENE) KELLY

29. These workers agreed to work for landowners for several years. The landowners paid for their passage to America. What two word identifier was given to these workers who might receive some land after their service ended?

INDENTURED SERVANTS

30. The interplanetary explorer with the greatest longevity was launched on March 2, 1972, and on June 13, 1983, became the first manmade object to travel beyond the known solar system. Name this explorer, retired in March 1997.

PIONEER X (PIONEER TEN)

END OF FIRST HALF – Begin three minute inquiry period

Round 14 - Second Half

2022-23 Elementary Practice Questions

1. Multiple answer required. In a nursery rhyme, these three items are the counterparts of "sugar and spice and everything nice." State the three things, according to the rhyme, that little boys are made of.

SNIPS, SNAILS, (AND) PUPPY-DOGS' TAILS

2. The spool of ribbon is two and two-thirds yards long. How many inches long is the ribbon?

96 (INCHES)

3. This musical combines plot points from Gertrude McFuzz and the two Horton picture books. Among its characters are JoJo, the Grinch, and the Cat in the Hat. Give the title of this musical filled with Theodor Geisel's creations.

SEUSSICAL (THE MUSICAL)

4. President Jefferson sent a secret message to Congress about this expedition. Officially, the group conducting this expedition was called the Corps of Discovery. What expedition explored the Louisiana Purchase?

LEWIS AND CLARK (EXPEDITION)

5. Nobel laureate Linus Pauling advocated taking mega-doses of this compound to prevent the common cold. This compound is needed by the body to build collagen in cells, so its deficiency will result in scurvy. Name this vitamin concentrated in citrus fruits like limes and oranges.

(VITAMIN) C

6. The first half of this compound word is an antonym of "under." The second half is an antonym of "catch." Give this verb that can mean "to bring down a government."

OVERTHROW

7. The minute hand of a clock makes one complete turn every hour. What type of angle is formed between the minute hand and the hour hand at 1:15?

ACUTE (ANGLE)

8. This part of a concert or opera was usually spontaneous, although modern-day versions are often planned. With a name meaning "still" or "again" in French, it occurs at a performance's conclusion when the audience applauds. Give the word for this demand of a repeated song or the performance of additional material.

ENCORE

9. This president was a general in the army. One of his main accomplishments was the interstate road system. Who was the 34th president of the United States?

(DWIGHT DAVID) EISENHOWER

10. After receiving one of these objects from Madagascar, Charles Darwin correctly predicted the existence of a moth with foot-long mouth parts. This plant structure includes a style and a stigma that may be fertilized by cross-pollination thanks to animals like bees. Fruits and seeds are produced by what reproductive organ of plants, that is often surrounded by colorful petals?

FLOWER

11. Spelled one way, this word means "doing nothing" and can refer to a state in which an engine runs on low power. Spelled another way, it can signify a false god or a celebrity. State the shared pronunciation for these words.

IDLE/IDOL (ACCEPT EITHER ONE OR BOTH)

12. Lisa needs to fill a ball with air. The ball has a radius of 3 inches. In terms of pi and in cubic inches, what is the volume of the ball that she needs to fill with air?

36 PI (CUBIC INCHES)

13. This substance primes rough wood or canvas for paint. It is a white paint mixture that combines glue with chalk or plaster. Identify this liquid, whose name is Italian for "gypsum."

GESSO [JESS-oh]

14. John Roberts is the Chief Justice of this group. What group of nine justices includes four women and five men?

(U.S.) SUPREME COURT

15. This phylum includes the largest number of organisms, hands down! This phylum is characterized by organisms with a segmented body, jointed appendages, and an exoskeleton. Name this phylum which includes insects and crustaceans.

ARTHROPOD(A)

16. How many words in the following sentence need to be capitalized? We took a field trip to the Capitol Building in Frankfort.

FOUR

17. The probability of winning a candy bar at the snack stand is three-sevenths. What is the probability of NOT winning a candy bar?

4/7 (CHANCE OF NOT WINNING) (ACCEPT: 4 OVER 7, 4 OUT OF 7)

18. To create this type of work, an artist sets tesserae [TESS-uh-ree] into mortar that hardens to keep them in place. Since ancient times, they have decorated walls, floors, and ceilings, as well as outdoor pavements. Name this artwork made of small pieces of stone, glass, or tile.

MOSAIC

19. Every American citizen has this inalienable right. What right is the first right listed in the Declaration of Independence?

LIFE

20. Animals of this type do not require as much food as others in order to survive, but they are more affected by fluctuating temperature. Give the scientific term for animals, like lizards, that cannot regulate their own body temperature.

ECTOTHERMS (ACCEPT: ECTOTHERMIC)

21. State the following sentence's verb tense: The team has come a long way.

PRESENT PERFECT (TENSE)

22. A certain number pattern requires multiplication. The rule is to multiply by 6. Find the next number in the sequence: 1, 6, 36...

216 (TWO HUNDRED SIXTEEN)

23. This part of the Vatican Palace houses a fresco of the Last Judgment on its western wall. The frescoes adorning its ceiling were completed between 1508 and 1512. Identify this private chapel of the pope and site of Michelangelo's The Creation of Adam.

(THE) SISTINE (CHAPEL)

24. Imagine you want to go to a ballgame and a party at the same time. You must choose one of the activities. What is the two word term for the one you give up?

OPPORTUNITY COST

25. Meats are an excellent source of protein, but often lack the ability to give us immediate energy unless they are combined with other food groups. The class of nutrients that gives us immediate energy comes in either simple or complex varieties and is a large provider of quick energy in our diet. What is the name for these nutrients which include sugar, pasta, and grains?

CARBOHYDRATES

26. State the following sentence's appositive phrase: Thor, my favorite Marvel superhero, is played by Chris Hemsworth.

MY FAVORITE MARVEL SUPERHERO

27. Sandy received a box of candy for her birthday. There were 20 pieces of chocolate, 6 orange pieces, and 10 nut candy pieces. How many pieces of candy were in the box?

36 (PIECES OF CANDY)

28. This Christian sect broke away from the Quakers in the 1700s. They moved to America, where Mother Ann Lee encouraged them to establish farms and make simple furniture. What was this group that once lived in a village at Mercer County's Pleasant Hill?

SHAKER(S)

29. Two word answer please. This building houses our nation's important documents. What building in Washington, D.C. contains the original Constitution?

NATIONAL ARCHIVES

30. Its name isn't an acronym, but instead was coined by Brian Kernighan as a pun on the name MULTICS. Name this computer operating system, developed at Bell Labs that was once the most common computer operating system in use.

UNIX

END OF ROUND SECOND HALF – Begin three minute inquiry period

EXTRA QUESTIONS

LA. Spelling required. Use the approximate figures to make your calculations. Spell the word in the preceding sentence that means "close" or "rough."

A-P-P-R-O-X-I-M-A-T-E

MA. Multiple answers. Listen carefully to determine what mathematical operations will be needed. Find the total number of ambulance trips if Ambulance A made 12 trips during the week while Ambulance B made 3 fewer trips. What mathematical operations would be required to solve the previous word problem?

ADDITION, SUBTRACTION (EITHER ORDER)

AH. This producer has promoted the musical acts Fifth Harmony, One Direction, Susan Boyle, and Grace VanderWaal. He created and has served as a judge for both The X Factor and the Got Talent franchises. Name this original British judge on American Idol.

(SIMON) COWELL

SS. This Pope became the first Pope in nearly 600 years to resign. What Pope was succeeded by Pope Francis the First?

(POPE) BENEDICT

SC. This scientist won a Nobel prize in medicine for his work regarding animal digestive systems. BF Skinner's "operant conditioning" is often contrasted with this scientist's namesake conditioning, also called "classical conditioning." Name this Russian psychologist who examined salivation in dogs in response to stimuli such as the ringing of a bell.

(IVAN) PAVLOV