

Round 2 - First Half

2022-23 Elementary Practice Questions

1. How many apostrophes should the following sentence contain? She's going to ask her sister to clean up their brother's mess before their parents get home.

TWO

2. This property of real numbers combines multiplication and addition. What property allows you to multiply a number by each of the addends inside the parentheses before adding the addends?

DISTRIBUTIVE (PROPERTY)

3. Symbols in this musical category may look like a hole, a top hat, a chicken's beak, or the number 7. Name these symbols that call for a period of silence.

REST(S)

4. This geographical region borders the Cumberland Mountains and the Eastern Knobs. What region includes most of what people call Eastern Kentucky?

APPLACHIAN PLATEAU

5. A sample of a material can be molded or shaped into many forms due to its malleability. What is the term for the physical property, similar to malleability, for a material's ability to be drawn or stretched into a wire?

DUCTILITY

6. In this novel, Star Children consume starlight before moving into the Free Cities. Xan the witch saves abandoned babies, including Luna, a girl she accidentally enmagicks with moonlight. Identify this Newbery winner by Kelly Barnhill.

(THE) GIRL WHO DRANK THE MOON

7. Mica lives in Elizabethtown and is traveling to Frankfort which is 64.04 miles away. How many miles will Mica travel for the round trip?

128.08 (MILES)

8. This musical word comes from the Italian for "tied together." It means notes should be played or sung in a smooth, connected way. State this opposite of staccato [stuh-KAH-toh].

LEGATO [luh-GOT-oh]

9. All of this man's sons fought in the War of 1812 and served in the Kentucky General Assembly. After helping write Kentucky's Constitution, what man became the second Governor of the Commonwealth?

(JAMES) GARRARD

10. A car is traveling sixty miles per hour. At this speed, how long would it take in minutes for the car to travel 45 miles?

FORTY-FIVE (MINUTES)

11. This picture book was based on the life of its author's great-grandfather. Subtitled The True Story of the World's Most Famous Bear, it recounts how a cub moved from Canada to the London Zoo. What is this Caldecott winner written by Lindsay Mattick and illustrated by Sophie Blackall?

FINDING WINNIE

12. Samson's teacher said that he could solve the problem if he knew the number of factors of 24. How many factors does Samson find in the number 24?

8 (FACTORS)

13. Before the Kentucky Derby, a trumpet plays one of these compositions. French horns and drums can also perform these short, showy pieces created for special events. Identify this brief musical formula heard during battles, hunts, and presidential or royal ceremonies.

FANFARE

14. Four great Americans are commemorated in this sculpture. It is located in South Dakota. What colossal sculpture was created by Gutzon Borglum?

MT. RUSHMORE (NATIONAL MEMORIAL)

15. This device stimulates atoms and molecules to produce light of a certain wavelength. It then takes the light energy and focuses it into a single beam with a very high amount of energy. What is the name of this kind of light device that, when high powered, can cut through metal or, when lower powered, is used in pointers and light shows?

LASER

16. This short poetic form creates strong natural imagery. Its 17 syllables are divided into lines of 5, 7, and 5. Identify this 3-line Japanese poem.

HAIKU

17. In order to solve this problem, you must convert a mixed number to an improper fraction. What improper fraction is equal to 21 and one-half?

43/2 (FORTY-THREE HALVES) (ACCEPT: 43 OVER 2)

18. This four-stringed instrument comes in soprano, concert, tenor, and baritone sizes. A member of the lute family, it descends from the Portuguese machada. What is this chordophone associated with Hawaii?

UKULELE

19. This travel can cause positive and negative effects on the environment. What is travel for pleasure that can help improve an area's economy?

TOURISM

20. Volcanic eruptions have been a source of geologic change throughout the history of Earth. As magma erupts through the surface and flows onto the crust as lava, it begins to cool, leaving new rock behind. Which type of rock is formed by lava and the remains of volcanic eruptions?

IGNEOUS (ROCK)

21. In this novel, the title character competes against Veruca Salt, Violet Beauregarde, Mike Teavee, and Augustus Gloop. By being the best-behaved child, he inherits the title business from its owner, Willy Wonka. Name this Roald Dahl [ROO-all DOLL] work.

CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY

22. Happy Elementary has an enrollment of 65 percent females. What percent of the school is male?

35 (PERCENT)

23. This man included "Gun Battle" and "The Open Prairie" in his ballet Billy the Kid. "Saturday Night Waltz" and "Buckaroo Holiday" are part of his ballet Rodeo. Identify this 20th-century composer of Fanfare for the Common Man.

(AARON) COPLAND

24. People of this nationality explored and settled Canada. They established many fur trading posts in the Northeast. What people settled Quebec?

FRENCH

25. This element is found in large supply in the Earth's crust. It is a major building block of ceramics and bricks, but its conductivity makes it a key component of transistors. Name this element, second only to oxygen in order of abundance in the Earth's crust.

SILICON

26. This literary element drives the plot because it gives the protagonist obstacles to overcome. It can be either external or internal. Name this element, examples of which are person versus self and person versus nature.

CONFLICT

27. Peter picked a peck of 125 pickles. If Peter picked a bushel of pickles, how many pickles would he have picked?

500 (PICKLES)

28. This element of dance might be powerful or gentle, heavy or light. Tension, flow, weight, attack, and force are part of it. Which element dictates how a movement happens?

ENERGY

29. The Lords Proprietor used this tactic to convince settlers to move to Carolina. What was this method of granting 150 acres of land to each new settler of Carolina?

HEADRIGHT SYSTEM

30. As the moon cycles through its phases, there are times when it seems to be getting smaller in size. What word, the lunar opposite of waxing, refers to these phases of the moon, particularly between a full moon and a third quarter moon?

WANING

END OF FIRST HALF – Begin three minute inquiry period

Round 2 - Second Half

2022-23 Elementary Practice Questions

1. This fable's title now refers to a person who raises a false alarm. It warns the reader, quote, "No one believes a liar, even when he is telling the truth." What is this Aesop fable about a young shepherd who loses his flock to a predator?

(THE) BOY WHO CRIED WOLF

2. The teacher draws a triangle on the board. She draws a little square in the corner of this triangle. What type of triangle with one 90 degree angle did she draw?

RIGHT (TRIANGLE)

3. This man's dance company performed world premiere works by Lester Horton, Pearl Primus, and Katherine Dunham. His works, including Blues Suite and Revelations, highlighted the experiences of African-Americans. Identify the founder of the American Dance Theater.

(ALVIN) AILEY

4. According to Senator James Hammond from South Carolina, this plant was King. What primary crop of Southern plantations was used in making clothes?

COTTON

5. This cell part functions as a barrier and support for both plant AND animal cells. Name this part that is semi-permeable, allowing some substances to come in while keeping others out of the cell.

(CELL) MEMBRANE

6. This nursery rhyme character shares his name with a character from Lewis Carroll's Through the Looking-Glass. Many illustrations show him as an egg, although the nursery rhyme only mentions his fragility. Who, after his great fall from a wall, couldn't be put back together again by the king's horses and men?

HUMPTY DUMPTY

7. By definition, this angle has less than 90 degrees. What is an angle that measures 30 degrees?

ACUTE (ANGLE)

8. In ancient Greece, this genre's most famous playwrights were Aeschylus [ES-kuh-luhs], Sophocles [SOF-uh-kleez], and Euripides [yoo-RIP-i-deez]. Its hero has a character flaw that causes his or her downfall. What is this opposite of comedy?

TRAGEDY

9. This Texan had trouble getting a job as an attorney because she was a woman. She was nominated to the Supreme Court by President Reagan. Who was the first woman to serve on the U.S. Supreme Court?

(SANDRA DAY) O'CONNOR

10. Plants typically have both male and female structures that allow for pollination. What is the collective term for the part of the flower that is made up of the stigma, style, and ovary?

CARPEL (ACCEPT: PISTIL)

11. This Latin prefix means "not." Identify this prefix that can precede "stop" or "fat."

NON- (Accept stated or spelled)

12. A carton will hold 12 small boxes. Each small box has a volume of one-half cubic inch. What is the volume of the carton in cubic inches?

6 (CUBIC INCHES)

13. One explanation for this specific element of art is, quote, "the areas where the subjects are positioned." An artwork's background is not part of it. State this opposite of negative space.

POSITIVE (SPACE)

14. This panel of citizens decides if there is enough evidence to charge someone with a crime. What is this special jury made up of 12 people in Kentucky?

GRAND (JURY)

15. Two word answer. This animal is the largest of the group of animals known as crustaceans. Name this animal whose typical habitat is off the coast of Japan and whose legs can measure up to 12 feet in length.

SPIDER CRAB

16. This word may refer to a large, sturdy chest for storing or transporting clothes or other belongings. In the U.S., it names the large storage space in the back of a car. Give this word for a tree's main stem or an elephant's long nose.

TRUNK

17. A spinner is divided into 4 equal sectors with each sector a different color. The colors of the sectors are red, blue, green, and purple. What is the probability of the spinner landing on purple?

1/4 (ONE-FOURTH) (ACCEPT: 1 OVER 4, 0.25, 25 %, 1 OUT OF 4)

18. Art movements that began in this country include Rococo, Pointillism, and Cubism. It was also the home of the Fontainebleau [fawn-ten-BLOH] and Barbizon [bar-bee-ZAHN] Schools. Which European nation was the site of the first Impressionist Exhibition?

FRANCE

19. The president states a pledge to defend this document in his oath of office. What document must every citizen defend?

CONSTITUTION

20. They were the first vertebrates to fly. What is the general name for the extinct flying reptiles with an extremely long forelimb digit supporting a membrane-like wing.

PTERODACTYL (ACCEPT: PTEROSAUR)

21. What is the simple subject of the following sentence? The aluminum ladder grew slippery in the rain.

LADDER

22. Find the next number in this sequence. The sequence begins 1, 1, 3, 7, 13... What is the next number?

21 (TWENTY-ONE)

23. This ancient statue's sculptor was Chares [KAH-reez] of Lindos. It was made of bronze and reinforced with iron, and once stood beside a Greek island's harbor. Identify this Wonder of the Ancient World.

(THE) COLOSSUS OF RHODES

24. When your parents borrow money from a bank to buy a car, they must pay the bank back. What four letter term means the money that is owed back to the bank?

DEBT

25. Digestion in the human body is the chemical process of converting food into useable energy. What class of corrosive chemicals turn litmus paper red and work to break down food in the stomach?

ACID(S)

26. The affirmative, or positive, type of this sentence is the English language's most common. It always ends with a period. Give the name for a sentence that makes a statement.

DECLARATIVE (SENTENCE)

27. Solve this equation for x. 2x plus 6 equals 16.

(X =) 5

28. This large portrait features a border of orange, red, and blue dots next to a specially-made white frame. It shows people of different social classes mingling at a park in the Seine [SEN] River. Give the name of this Georges Seurat [ZHAWRZH suh-RAH] masterpiece.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ON THE ISLAND OF LA GRANDE JATTE [GRAHND ZHAHT] (Accept (A) SUNDAY ON LA GRANDE JATTE (--1884))

29. "We the People" begins this part of the Constitution. It ends with "establish this Constitution for the United States of America." What is this short introduction to the Constitution?

PREAMBLE (TO THE CONSTITUTION)

30. Nuclear power plants have become a powerful source of zero emission clean energy. What element is most commonly used during fission by nuclear power plants to harness energy?

URANIUM

END OF ROUND SECOND HALF – Begin three minute inquiry period

EXTRA QUESTIONS

LA. Spelling required. Philosophers use logic to prove their arguments. Spell the word in the previous sentence that is a synonym of "reason" or "sense."

L-O-G-I-C

MA. Gino has ten pencils and five pencil holders. He divides the pencils equally into the pencil holders. How many pencils will be in each pencil holder?

2 (PENCILS)

AH. This folk character once fooled Sis Cow into giving him a drink of milk. In another story, a temper-tantrum caused his hands and feet to become stuck to a tar-baby. Give the name of this Uncle Remus trickster figure who sometimes outwitted Br'er Fox.

BR'ER RABBIT

SS. He founded Microsoft in 1975 with his friend. He is an American computer programmer. What wealthy entrepreneur is known for his charitable work?

(BILL) GATES (ACCEPT: WILLIAM HENRY GATES III)

SC. In 1774, this element was discovered by Joseph Priestley. What element, atomic number 8, is necessary for animals to carry out respiration and has the chemical symbol O?

OXYGEN