

Round 3 - First Half

2022-23 Elementary Practice Questions

1. The chef cut the dessert into 24 pieces. He serves 8 pieces to the customers. In lowest terms, what fraction of the dessert was served?

1/3 (ONE-THIRD) (ACCEPT: 1 OVER 3)

2. This element of music might be andante, adagio [uh-DAH-zhee-oh], or allegro. What is the word for how fast or slow a piece of music is played or sung?

TEMPO

3. "I have a dream," said this man during the March on Washington in 1963. He received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964. What African American civil rights leader was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee?

(MARTIN LUTHER) KING (JR.) (ACCEPT: MLK)

4. In chemistry, substances can be altered in a number of ways. What is the general term for the type of change that can only be observed when the material undergoes a reaction in which it has different properties and new substances are formed?

CHEMICAL (CHANGE)

5. In this Newbery-winning novel, Lily and Sam move with their mom into their Korean grandmother's house. Lily makes a deal with the title animal to save her grandmother's life by returning stories her grandmother stole. Give the title of this Tae Keller book.

WHEN YOU TRAP A TIGER

6. A standard six-sided die has 3 odd numbers and 3 even numbers. What is the probability of rolling an even number using that die?

1/2 (ONE-HALF) (ACCEPT: 1 OVER 2, 0.50, 50%, 1 OUT OF 2)

7. This American roots music with English, Scottish, and Irish roots is played on acoustic instruments. Among those instruments are the dobro, fiddle, mandolin, and banjo. Identify this Appalachian folk music native to Kentucky.

BLUEGRASS (MUSIC)

8. This northern region of the Commonwealth gives Kentucky its nickname. What region is named for the dark green grass that covers the pasture lands?

BLUEGRASS (REGION)

9. Mechanical energy is the sum of two different types of energy. One of these types of energy, kinetic energy is energy in motion. What is the name for the other type of energy, energy at rest?

POTENTIAL (ENERGY)

10. According to this picture book's opening line, the title substance, quote, "is the first medicine." It tells of an Ojibwe girl's fight against an oil pipeline. Identify this book written by Carole Lindstrom and illustrated by Michaela Goode.

WE ARE WATER PROTECTORS

11. When grouping addends to compute a sum, this math property can be used. What property of addition states that the sums of 6 plus 4 added to 3 equals the sum of 6 added to the sum of 4 plus 3?

ASSOCIATIVE (PROPERTY OF ADDITION)

12. Brahms used text from the Book of Psalms for his German one of these works. Mozart's student completed his after the master composer's death. What is this music written for a Catholic service to honor the dead?

REQUIEM

13. All fifty states have state birds, but this state was the first to choose one. What state chose the northern cardinal as its state bird in 1926?

KENTUCKY

14. The sun is the greatest source of energy on earth and most forms we see can be traced back to it. Of the two types of energy that cannot boast their origins in the sun, one, nuclear, is a product of fission or fusion of elements. Give the name for the other that derives its power from deep in the Earth.

GEOHERMAL (ENERGY)

15. This poet created such characters as Marvin K. Mooney, Bartholomew Cubbins, and the Lorax. Yertle the Turtle, Horton the elephant, and Fox in Socks also appear in his rhyming picture books. Who created the Grinch and the Cat in the Hat?

(DOCTOR) SEUSS (Accept (THEODOR) GEISEL)

16. Your academic team is selling tubs of cookie dough for $12.00 per tub. Every member must sell $96.00 worth of cookie dough. How many tubs must each member sell?

8 (TUBS OF COOKIE DOUGH)

17. This instrument may have originated from a keyboard attached to a psaltery. Popular in the Renaissance and Baroque Eras, it plucks strings when its keys are pressed. Give the name of this precursor to the piano.

HARPSICHORD

18. Every meridian and the equator are examples of these circles. What circle drawn on a globe divides the globe into two equal halves?

GREAT (CIRCLE)

19. Pressure under the surface of Earth's crust can cause cracks that allow steam and water to escape. Water can force its way through these cracks in a violent manner, erupting almost like a volcano. Give the name of these hot springs, the most famous of which is located in Yellowstone National Park.

GEYSER

20. This author of Eight Cousins called its sequel Rose in Bloom. Her best-known works are a trilogy focused on Jo March and her family. Give the name of this Little Women creator.

(LOUISA MAY) ALCOTT

21. Twenty-four swimmers were practicing for their swim meet. Eight swimmers left the pool for a break. What fraction of the swimmers remained in the pool?

$\frac{2}{3}$ (TWO-THIRDS)

22. This so-called "father of the string quartet" was, with Mozart, a leading Classical Era composer. He pleased his hometown of Vienna with the oratorios The Creation and The Seasons. Name this composer of over 100 symphonies, including Clock and Surprise.

(FRANZ JOSEPH) HAYDN [HI-den]

23. This state is the most visited state in the U.S. It has big cities, large amusement parks, and many beaches. What state's most famous tourist spots include Disneyland and Hollywood?

CALIFORNIA

24. When the air temperature and dew point are within three degrees of one another, a common weather phenomenon occurs. Name this phenomenon, typically seen early in the morning, that is notable in London.

FOG

25. Works in this broad category include newspaper articles, diary entries, and travel writing. Biographies, histories, and essays also belong to this group. What is the word for writing that is about true people and events?

NONFICTION

26. The math exam has 50 questions. Leonard answered 15 questions correctly. What percent of the exam did Leonard answer correctly?

30 (PERCENT)

27. This movement category encompasses crawling, climbing, and sliding. Jumping, hopping, and leaping are also examples. Give the word for movements that transport the body from one place to another.

LOCOMOTOR (MOVEMENT)

28. The first settlements in this U.S. state appeared around 300 - 600 AD. Polynesians were the first to settle on this island state. What state did James Cook explore in the 1700s?

HAWAII

29. Not counting the dwarf planets, it is the smallest planet in the solar system. Having an average orbit of 88 days and a composition of mostly iron, name this planet, the closest to the sun.

MERCURY

30. This folk hero's real name was John Reid. He wore a black mask, rode the horse Silver, and called his sidekick "kemosabe" [kee-mo-SAH-bee]. Identify this cowboy friend of Tonto.

(THE) LONE RANGER

END OF FIRST HALF – Begin three minute inquiry period

Round 3 - Second Half 2022-23 Elementary Practice Questions

1. This measurement is the standard metric measurement for length. It is equal to 1000 millimeters. What measure is equal to 100 centimeters?

(1) METER

2. While dancing as a soloist with the Kirov Ballet, this man defected to the West in 1961. He spent his last decade as artistic director and, later, chief choreographer of the Paris Opera Ballet. Name this frequent dance partner of Dame Margot Fonteyn [MAR-go fawn-TAYN].

(RUDOLF) NUREYEV [noo-REY-ef]

3. This war was one of the bloodiest conflicts in the colonial period. What 1715 war is named for the tribe of Native Americans who lost their lands to the Carolinians?

YAMASEE (WAR)

4. First discovered in viewing a slice of cork through a microscope, these structures were noted to resemble the rooms of a monastery. Name these structures, the smallest units of life, that comprise every living being.

CELLS

5. In this fairy tale, Maleficent curses a small princess to die on her 16th birthday. Instead, that girl pricks her finger on a spindle and slumbers for a century. Name this story in which a prince's kiss awakens Aurora.

SLEEPING BEAUTY

6. A right triangle has sides of 3 inches, 4 inches, and 5 inches. Based on its side lengths what type of triangle has no equal sides?

SCALENE (TRIANGLE)

7. New songs written for this musical include "These Palace Walls" and "Diamond in the Rough." Like the Disney movie on which it's based, it features sorcerer and grand vizier Jafar. Name this musical with Princess Jasmine, a flying carpet, and a wish-granting genie.

ALADDIN

8. In 1861 representatives from seven seceded states formed a new constitution for a new government. What was the name of the new government of the Southern states?

CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA (ACCEPT: CONFEDERACY)

9. In exchange for a bit of nectar, a honeybee lends aid to plants in the form of pollination. What type of relationship occurs when two organisms interact, with both receiving mutual benefit from the relationship?

MUTUALISM

10. This word's Greek prefix means "three." Its Greek root means "wheel." What is this word for a three-wheeled form of transportation?

TRICYCLE

11. This quadrilateral has two pairs of equal sides. A rhombus is a special type of this quadrilateral. What type of quadrilateral has the equal sides next to each other?

KITE

12. This art medium comes in compressed, vine, and powdered varieties. Painters use it for rough sketches, but artists also spray fixative on it to preserve finished drawings. Name this carbon derived from heated wood, which is also used for grilling food.

CHARCOAL

13. This Henry Clay High School graduate is the son of a past Kentucky governor. What man is the 63rd governor of Kentucky?

(ANDY) BESHEAR

14. During pollinations, honey bees gather nectar for energy and storage. Once the bees return to the hive, they deposit the gathered nectar and it is broken down into simple sugars for storage. What is the name of the structure of wax containing rows of 6-sided cells made by bees to store their honey?

(HONEY) COMB

15. The first half of this word names our planet. The second half is a synonym of "tremble" or "shake." Name this type of natural disaster.

EARTHQUAKE

16. A bag of mulch will cover 5 square feet. Sally has a flower garden that is 5 feet on each side. How many bags of mulch will she need?

5 (BAGS OF MULCH)

17. This movement's artists included Jasper Johns, Roy Lichtenstein, and David Hockney. Centered in New York, it used comic books, street signs, celebrities, and consumer products as subjects. Identify this 1950s and '60s movement associated with Andy Warhol.

POP (ART)

18. Every citizen of the U.S. must pay his share of this money to run the country. What is the money citizens pay to the government to help support the country?

TAXES

19. While this animal is a bear, it closely resembles a raccoon and has similar characteristics. Identify this large mammal, native to Asia, whose diet consists mainly of bamboo.

PANDA

20. Which words in the following sentence need to be capitalized? Rome is the capital of Italy, a country in Europe.

ROME, ITALY, (AND) EUROPE (any order)

21. A geometric sequence begins 1, 3, 9 ... Determine the next number in the sequence.

27 (TWENTY-SEVEN)

22. Like perspective, this art technique can make two-dimensional paintings and drawings seem three-dimensional. It heightens the drama of works like Caravaggio's The Calling of St. Matthew and Rembrandt's The Night Watch. Leonardo's Lady with an Ermine uses what strong contrast between light and darkness?

CHIAROSCURO [kee-AR-oh-SKOOR-oh]

23. This is the central bank of the United States. What central banking system has twelve regional banks?

FEDERAL RESERVE (SYSTEM)

24. The skin, the largest organ of the human body is responsible for protecting us from infection and disease. What body system is our first line of defense against our external environment and includes the skin, glands, hair and nails.

INTEGUMENTARY (SYSTEM)

25. State the following sentence's complete predicate: The newest Lego set is complicated to assemble.

IS COMPLICATED TO ASSEMBLE

26. Solve this equation for x. X plus 0 equals 17.

(X=) 17

27. By the late 1940s, this artist was laying canvases on the floor as he poured enamel or aluminum paint on them. This technique earned him the nickname "Jack the Dripper." Name the Abstract Expressionist painter of Autumn Rhythm and Lavender Mist.

(JACKSON) POLLOCK

28. Three word answer please. The American flag has this nickname. What nickname describes the design of the red, white, and blue flag?

STARS AND STRIPES

29. Solving problems through inquiry is an important part of the scientific process. What step in the scientific method includes making an educated guess about the outcome of an experiment?

HYPOTHESIS

30. The English language's shortest grammatically correct sentence is this type. Depending on the severity of its tone, this kind of sentence can end with either a period or an exclamation point. What is this sentence that gives a command?

IMPERATIVE (SENTENCE)

END OF ROUND SECOND HALF – Begin three minute inquiry period

EXTRA QUESTIONS

MA. Using mental math is often faster than using pencils and paper. Use mental math to determine what number must be divided by nine to equal 8.

72 (SEVENTY-TWO)

AH. This Native American ceremony's name comes from the Algonquin word meaning "he dreams." During part of it, tribe members in animal skins, feathers, and beads dance to drum music. What is this communal celebration of one or many Native American cultures?

POWWOW

SS. U.S. Forces killed this most wanted terrorist on earth in 2011. What al-Qaeda leader was responsible for the 9/11 attacks?

(OSAMA) BIN LADEN

SC. This scientist was so intrigued by the work on early telescopes that he began experimenting with ways to prevent the light distortions that were typical. Instead of using prisms as other scientists had at the time, he began using different mirrors. Name this scientist, who developed the reflecting telescope, and who is widely credited with discovering gravity after observing a falling apple.

(SIR ISAAC) NEWTON

LA. Spelling required. Pardon me for disturbing your meditation. Spell the word from the preceding sentence that is a synonym of "forgive."

P-A-R-D-O-N