

1. This element of music increases when a player or singer sees "accelerando" [aht-chel-uh-RAHN-doh] and decreases when they see "ritardando" [ree-tar-DAHNdoh]. Largo, allegro, and presto are all words related to it. Give the term for how fast or slow a piece of music is performed.

TEMPO

2. This novel's title refers to Luna, whom Xan [ZAN], the witch rescued as a baby. As Luna's magic powers grow near her 13th birthday, Xan nears her own death. What is this Newbery Medal-winning Kelly Barnhill novel?

(THE) GIRL WHO DRANK THE MOON

3. This question requires two answers in the correct order. Both addition and multiplication have identity elements. What are the identity elements for addition and multiplication?

ZERO, ONE (MUST BE IN THIS ORDER)

4. Like the Kelvin scale, this temperature scale uses SI metric measurements. A Swedish astronomer devised it, but he reversed water's boiling and freezing points as we know them today. Identify this scale at which water boils at 100 degrees and freezes at 0 degrees.

CELSIUS (Accept CENTIGRADE)

5. A museum dedicated to this iconic businessman is located in Corbin, Kentucky, at the site of a café where he developed his world-renowned "secret recipe" for fried chicken. Name the founder of Kentucky Fried Chicken.

(COLONEL) (HARLAND) SANDERS

6. At the football game, 7.5 rows of bleachers were filled. Six fans can sit in each complete row. How many fans attended the football game?

45 (FORTY-FIVE FANS)

7. This Caldecott-winning picture book is based on a Brothers Grimm fairy tale. In it, Paul O. Zelinsky describes the title character's birth, childhood, and imprisonment by a witch. Identify this book about a prince who rescues a young woman from a tower by climbing her long hair.

RAPUNZEL

8. Two U.S. vice presidents, Richard M. Johnson and John C. Breckinridge, both graduated from this school, the first university opened west of the Allegheny Mountains. Identify this university established in 1780 and located in Lexington, Kentucky.

TRANSYLVANIA (UNIVERSITY)

9. Two-word answer, please. This element of music is why instruments and voices each have unique sounds. What is this element, also called tone color?

TIMBRE [TAM ber]

10. This simple machine comes in three classes based on the position of its fulcrum, load, and effort. Crowbars and seesaws are examples of this simple machine that uses a rigid bar that pivots around a point. What is this simple machine?

LEVER

11. These waves are the longest in the electromagnetic spectrum. Radar uses them, as do communication and broadcasting satellites, cell phones, and computers. What are these waves with AM and FM varieties your car's antenna can detect?

RADIO (WAVES)

12. This musical piece has an Italian name that means "playing together" or "agreeing." An example is The Four Seasons by Antonio Vivaldi. What do we call this music piece for a soloist and an orchestra?

CONCERTO [kun-CHAIR-toh]

13. An example of this map feature might indicate that every centimeter on the map is equivalent to 10 kilometers of real space. What feature of a map details how distance on the map corresponds to distance in the physical world?

(MAP) SCALE

14. This poet once compared hope to, quote, "the thing with feathers-- / That perches in the soul--" The speaker celebrates anonymity in her poem "I'm Nobody! Who are you?" Identify this reclusive 19th-century poet nicknamed "The Belle of Amherst."

(EMILY) DICKINSON

15. One liter of water equals approximately 33.8 ounces. How many liters of water are equivalent to 135.2 ounces?

4 (FOUR LITERS)

16. This instrument's greatest living player is probably Yo-Yo Ma. It is the lowest-pitched member of the standard string quartet. Identify this string instrument that is larger than a viola but smaller than a double bass.

CELLO (ACCEPT: VIOLONCELLO)

17. This author wrote about an orphaned girl in Eight Cousins and its sequel Rose in Bloom. Her masterpiece was initially published in two parts, with the second half being called Good Wives. Who wrote Little Women?

(LOUISA MAY) ALCOTT

18. Scientists characterize this part of the ground as the O horizon. It can be an inch thick and contains microorganisms and organic matter called humus [HYOO-mus]. Give the name for this uppermost layer of soil.

TOP(SOIL)

19. It became the second permanent English colony in the New World and the first permanent English colony in New England when it was settled in 1620. Name this colony originally settled by separatists brought to the New World aboard the Mayflower.

PLYMOUTH (COLONY)

20. A quilt pattern contains fourteen pink squares and eighteen purple squares. What is the ratio of purple squares to pink squares?

9:7 (NINE TO SEVEN) (ACCEPT: NINE OVER SEVEN OR NINE-SEVENTHS)

21. This broad literary category includes encyclopedia entries, movie reviews, and histories. Newspaper articles, travel guides, and biographies also fall under this heading. What is this type of prose that deals with facts and reality?

NONFICTION

22. Because this state ratified the U.S. Constitution five days before Pennsylvania in 1787, it is known as the "First State." Name the first state admitted to the Union, which has its capital at Dover.

DELAWARE

23. This ballet's five segments include "Buckaroo Holiday" and "Hoe-Down." Set at Burnt Ranch, it follows a cowgirl's attempts to woo the head wrangler. Give the one-word title of this Aaron Copland work.

RODEO

24. Sometimes, this word is used interchangeably with "glaze" to refer to clear ice on objects. Other times, it names a mixture of snow and rain. Name these ice pellets that are smaller than hail.

SLEET

25. Janice rides her bike 2,000 meters to school and back daily. How many kilometers does she ride in five days?

10 (TEN KILOMETERS)

26. Stop signs are examples of this geometric shape. It has eight angles and eight vertices. What geometric shape contains eight sides?

OCTAGON

27. This tall tale man created the Grand Canyon by dragging his axe behind him. Other stories tell how he built the Big Rock Candy Mountain and created the Great Lakes as watering holes for his pet. Name this lumberjack owner of Babe, the Blue Ox.

(PAUL) BUNYAN

28. In December 1860, this southern state became the first to secede from the Union. Identify this state, which in April 1861, was the site of the Battle of Fort Sumter and the official beginning of the American Civil War.

SOUTH CAROLINA

29. This element of dance controls a dancer's focus and pathway. It also determines the level, size, and direction of movements. Identify this element, which can be general or personal.

SPACE

30. This planet's largest moon, Titan, is the only moon in the solar system confirmed to have clouds. The Cassini spacecraft sampled the atmosphere of this second-largest planet in our solar system. Give the name of this gas giant known for its rings.

SATURN

31. This acid is shaped like a double helix, resembling a twisting ladder. It is made of genes and stored in chromosomes in a cell's nucleus. Name this complex molecule that determines an organism's physical traits.

DNA

32. This performer began her career on Broadway in Top Speed and Girl Crazy. She soon moved to Hollywood, where she co-starred in Flying Down to Rio and Top Hat. Who was this frequent onscreen co-star of Fred Astaire?

(GINGER) ROGERS

33. This nursery rhyme's title contains a phrase meaning, quote, "a disfavored or disreputable member of a group." In it, the title animal claims he has three bags of wool for his master, his dame, and the little boy who lives down the lane. Identify this rhyme about a dark-colored lamb.

"BAA, BAA, BLACK SHEEP"

34. In one famous story concerning this American city, a cow belonging to resident Mrs. O'Leary was responsible for starting the "Great Fire" that destroyed many of its buildings and homes in 1871. Name this city in Illinois, today America's third largest by population.

CHICAGO (ILLINOIS)

35. To find the volume of a rectangular prism, you must know three measurements. Besides length and width, what other measurement must you know?

HEIGHT

36. To date, this is the highest-grossing Broadway musical, having earned over $1.6 billion. It mixes live performers with puppets in numbers like "Can You Feel the Love Tonight" and "The Circle of Life." What is this musical about Timon, Pumbaa, Nala, and Simba?

(THE) LION KING

37. As a prefix, it can precede "time," "flow," or "come." It is an Anglo-Saxon prefix meaning "above" or "too much." What is this antonym of "under"?

OVER

38. The probability of getting heads or tails is 1/2 when flipping a quarter. What is the probability of getting heads after 100 flips of the coin?

1/2 (ONE-HALF)

39. This part of a plant contains stomata [sto-MAH-tuh], pores that open and close to exchange gases with the atmosphere. Deciduous plants shed them, while evergreens keep them all year long. Identify this thin, flat plant organ that houses chlorophyll for photosynthesis.

LEAF (ACCEPT: LEAVES)

40. Kevin McCarthy took over this federal government role in January 2023, succeeding Nancy Pelosi. The holder of what congressional leadership position is second in the U.S. presidential line of succession?

SPEAKER OF THE (UNITED STATES) HOUSE (OF REPRESENTATIVES)

41. As a noun, this word is a synonym of "type" or "variety." Give this word that, as an adjective, is a synonym of "nice."

KIND

42. While President Ulysses S. Grant signed the law officially designated it a federal holiday, Abraham Lincoln chose for the day to be observed on a Thursday in November. Give the name of this national holiday often associated with the Plymouth Pilgrims.

THANKSGIVING

43. The first four numbers of a number pattern are 69, 58, 47, and 36. What is the rule for finding the next number in the pattern?

SUBTRACT 11 (ACCEPT SIMILAR RESPONSE)

44. Insects of this type have hard forewings that cover their thin, membranous flight wings. They make up about 1/4 of Earth's known animal species. What is this category that includes weevils, scarabs, and ladybugs?

BEETLE(S)

45. This type of line implies that a landscape continues beyond an artwork's edges. It can suggest relaxation and rest. What is this counterpart of the vertical and diagonal lines?

HORIZONTAL (LINE)

46. Use the equation Y equals X plus 45. What is the value of Y when X equals 45?

90 (NINETY)

47. Also called poster paint, this substance can form a base for pastels, crayons, or watercolors. It dries quickly and is made of pigment, gum arabic, and additives like chalk. What is the French word for this opaque watercolor?

GOUACHE [GWASH or GOO-ahsh]

48. The ladybug fits into this dietary category because it feeds on aphids. Snakes, sharks, and large and small cats are also part of it. Give the word for an animal that primarily or exclusively eats meat.

CARNIVORE(S)

49. Abraham Lincoln issued a proclamation officially known as Proclamation 95 issuing this form of freedom on January 1, 1863. Give the term beginning with "E," which refers to freeing an individual or group from previous social, legal, or political restraint.

EMANCIPATION

50. How many words should be capitalized in the following sentence? I have playdates every Saturday and Sunday in June.

FOUR

51. There are 32 students in the math class. 25% of the students were absent. How many students were absent?

8 (STUDENTS)

52. This painting technique has a name meaning "light-dark" in Italian. Caravaggio [kar-uh-VAH-jee-oh], Rembrandt, and Leonardo da Vinci all mastered it. Identify this art technique that arranges light and shadow to define three-dimensional objects.

CHIAROSCURO [kee-AR-oh-SKOOR-oh]

53. A portion of Leviticus 25:10 is cast into the metal comprising this American symbol once located in the steeple of Independence Hall in Philadelphia. Give the popular name for this physical American Independence symbol most easily recognized by a large crack on its surface.

LIBERTY BELL

54. These particles are made of nucleic acid surrounded by protein. Fevers can kill them, antibodies attack them, and vaccines sometimes prevent them from infecting people. Name these particles that cause the flu, the common cold, and COVID.

VIRUS(ES)

55. Give the following sentence's complete predicate: The basketball team's injured player scored the winning basket.

SCORED THE WINNING BASKET

56. How many prepositional phrases appear in the following sentence? From what she said, she aced the test without trying.

TWO

57. This scientific tool's first wide-scale use was in supermarket checkouts. Some printers use them, and they sometimes replace knives and scalpels in surgeries. Identify this focused beam of light that escapes from a tube.

LASER(S)

58. One side of a stop sign measures 10 units. What is the perimeter of the stop sign in units?

80 (EIGHTY UNITS)

59. First and last names are required. Following a third-round loss at the 2022 U.S. Open, this 23-time Grand Slam champion confirmed her plans to step away from competitive tennis. Name this champion athlete who rose to the top of women's tennis alongside her sister, Venus.

SERENA WILLIAMS

60. Unlike other Impressionists, this artist rejected that label and painted in a studio rather than outdoors. He set some of his paintings at racetracks and cafes, but over half of his works depict ballerinas. Who sculpted Little Dancer of Fourteen Years?

(EDGAR) DEGAS [day-GAH]