

1. Italian name, please. This musical symbol means a note should be held longer than usual. It consists of a dot with a downward curving arc above it. Identify this symbol nicknamed a "birdseye."

FERMATA [fur-MAH-tuh]

2. Set during the Great Depression, this novel consists of 110 free verse poems. Its protagonist, Billie Jo Kelby, reconciles with her father after the accidental deaths of her mother and baby brother. What is this Newbery-winning novel by Karen Hesse [HESS]?

OUT OF THE DUST

3. An equation is stated as $28 + 0 = 28$. What property of addition is illustrated by the previous equation?

IDENTITY (PROPERTY) (OF ADDITION)

4. Examples of this change include mixing sand with water, shredding paper, and chopping wood. What kind of change affects a substance's form but not what makes up the substance?

PHYSICAL (CHANGE)

5. Extending from southern Florida to Michigan near the Canadian border, this north-south interstate passes through the Kentucky cities of London, Richmond, and Lexington before continuing north into Cincinnati, Ohio. Identify this interstate, the second longest north-south interstate in the U.S.

I(NTERSTATE) 75

6. The storage closet contains 10 boxes of 7 erasers each. How many erasers will be left over if 8 boxes of erasers are used?

14 (FOURTEEN ERASERS) (ACCEPT: 2 BOXES OF ERASERS)

7. This wordless picture book begins and ends with a child finding a camera at the beach. The camera's photos show the animals, plants, and cities that exist under the waves. Name this book, which earned David Wiesner [WEEZ-nur] his third Caldecott Medal.

FLOTSAM

8. During the American Civil War, this state was the birthplace of both the president of the Confederate States and the president of the United States. What state was the birthplace of both Jefferson Davis and Abraham Lincoln?

KENTUCKY

9. Originally, this word applied to any musical piece played and not sung. Eventually, it referred to a multi-movement work for one or two instruments. Identify this kind of piece, one which Beethoven nicknamed "Moonlight."

SONATA

10. This simple machine is the part of a flagpole that raises and lowers the flag. Give the name of a wheel and rope that can change a force's direction.

PULLEY

11. This quantity measures the average kinetic energy of a substance's particles. It increases as the particles move at higher rates. Identify this measure of an object's warmth or coolness.

TEMPERATURE

12. Despite the name, instruments in this family can also be made of metal or plastic. Some require one or two reeds, while others don't need any. Give the name of this family that includes the clarinet and flute.

WOODWIND(S)

13. In geography, this term refers to a large geographical region typically consisting of a large landmass or a significant portion of a vast landmass. Give the term for these regions, of which Africa, Europe, and Asia are examples.

CONTINENT(S)

14. It's not the haiku, but this poem shares similarities with the Japanese tanka. Identify this poetic form, whose 5 lines consist of 2, 4, 6, 8, and 2 syllables.

CINQUAIN [sing-KANE or sang-KANE]

15. Leo ran 2 and $\frac{2}{7}$ miles on Monday and 3 and $\frac{1}{49}$ miles on Tuesday. How much farther did he run on Tuesday than on Monday?

36/49 (THIRTY-SIX FORTY-NINTHS) (MILES) (ACCEPT: 36 OVER 49) (MILES)

16. One of this opera's title characters is a disabled street beggar. The other title character, his love interest, is dating Crown and buying drugs from Sportin' Life. Charleston's Catfish Row is the setting for what work by Dubose Heyward, George, and Ira Gershwin?

PORGY AND BESS

17. This author wrote of Cedric Errol's unexpected inheritance in Little Lord Fauntleroy. A similar windfall happens to Sara Crewe in her novel A Little Princess. Name this creator of Mary Lennox in The Secret Garden.

(FRANCES HODGSON) BURNETT

18. Unlike erosion, this natural process occurs in one place. It can be biological, chemical, or mechanical. What is this breaking down of exposed rock?

WEATHER(ING)

19. From 1616 to 1699, this settlement within the Colony of Virginia served as the capital of colonial America. What English settlement is recognized as the first permanent English settlement in the New World?

JAMESTOWN

20. Coco had eight pups, and three were white. Four of the pups were black, and the rest were brown. What is the ratio of brown puppies to the total number of Coco's pups?

1:8 (ONE TO EIGHT) (ACCEPT ONE OVER EIGHT OR ONE-EIGHTH)

21. This sound device is a staple of comics. Examples include "pow," "boom," and "whoosh." Identify these words that resemble the sounds they represent.

ONOMATOPOEIA [ah-nuh-mah-tuh-PEE-uh]

22. This historical event, which occurred on December 16, 1773, was an act of protest organized by the Sons of Liberty. Give the name of this event where participants protested "taxation without representation" by dumping shipments of a specific good into a harbor.

BOSTON TEA PARTY

23. One legend says the goddess Pele first performed this dance to celebrate her escape from her sister. It uses arm and hip movements to describe a place or tell a story. Name this Hawaiian folk dance.

HULA

24. Many of these weather phenomena form from cumulonimbus [kyoom-yoo-loh-NIM-bus] clouds. It features Earth's strongest winds, reaching up to 300 miles per hour. What is this rotating column of air that reaches from a cloud to the ground?

TORNADO

25. George has 128 ounces of water in a container. He wants to fill $\frac{1}{8}$ gallon water bottles. How many water bottles will he be able to fill?

8 (EIGHT BOTTLES)

26. This geometric shape contains 180 degrees. It is one-half of a circle. What geometric shape looks like a slice of an orange?

SEMICIRCLE

27. In this fable, a runaway slave removes a thorn from a large cat's paw. Later, that animal refuses to eat him in a Roman arena. Name this Aesop fable that teaches, quote, "Gratitude is the sign of a noble soul."

ANDROCLES [AND-ruh-kleez] AND THE LION

28. Delivered at the dedication of the Soldiers' National Cemetery on November 19, 1863, this brief speech began with the words "Four score and seven years ago." Give the name of this iconic speech delivered during the American Civil War by President Abraham Lincoln.

GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

29. This musician incorporated kicks, toe stands, and an anti-gravity lean into his performances. His signature move was a popping step in which he traveled backward while appearing to move forward. Identify this late "King of Pop," the perfecter of the moonwalk.

(MICHAEL) JACKSON

30. This subject of the Mariner and Messenger spacecrafts orbits the sun in 88 Earth days. It has no moons and is less than half Earth's size. Identify the closest planet to our sun.

MERCURY

End of First Half – Begin Three-Minute Inquiry Period

Round 6 - Second Half

Elementary – 2023 District

31. These unicellular organisms can be shaped like rods, spheres, or spirals. Many reproduce through binary fission and can be killed by antibiotics. Give the name of these microscopic organisms that cause illnesses like strep throat.

BACTERIA (Accept BACTERIUM)

32. This musical is based on a 1920s comic strip created by Harold Gray. Among its characters are Miss Hannigan, wealthy Daddy Warbucks, and Sandy, the dog. Name this musical, whose red-headed protagonist sings about the sun coming out tomorrow.

ANNIE

33. This man delivered his best-known speech to Williamsburg's Peyton Randolph, president of the Second Virginia Convention. In it, he urged the colony to raise and establish a militia to fight in the American Revolution. Identify this man who ended his speech, "Give me liberty, or give me death!"

(PATRICK) HENRY

34. This war has been referred to as the "Great War" and the "War to End All Wars." In 1917, the United States joined what global military conflict that concluded a year later with a victory by the Allies?

WORLD WAR ONE

35. Mr. Rogers is covering his flower bed with mulch one inch thick. The flower bed measures 60 inches long and 5 inches wide. How many cubic inches of mulch will he need to cover the flower bed?

300 (CUBIC INCHES)

36. Another name for this set-up is the theater in the round. It often features tiered seating in a large auditorium. Give the word for a stage that the audience surrounds on all sides.

ARENA (STAGE)

37. This word is sometimes a synonym of "commonplace." It contains the Latin root for "foot." What is this word for someone who walks?

PEDESTRIAN

38. A spinner is divided into 12 equal sectors. Each sector is a different color. What is the probability of spinning a specific color in a single spin?

1/12 (ONE-TWELFTH OR ONE OVER TWELVE)

39. This plant part causes hay fever in people allergic to it. A plant's stamens form these grains, which contain sperm cells. Name these tiny yellow spores that fertilize a plant's egg cells.

POLLEN

40. First and last names are required. From 2016 to 2019, he served as Attorney General of Kentucky. Name this politician who defeated Governor Matt Bevin in an election in 2019, becoming the sixty-third governor of Kentucky.

ANDREW ("ANDY") BESHEAR

41. The first part of this compound word is a natural substance that can be petrified. The second part is a nickname for "Charles." Identify this other name for a groundhog.

WOODCHUCK

42. This amendment to the U.S. Constitution includes a Self-Incrimination Clause which protects an individual's right to decline to answer questions that could be used to make them appear guilty of a crime. Individuals, who refuse to answer such questions typically "plead" which amendment to the U.S. Constitution?

5(TH) (AMENDMENT)

43. A number pattern is formed by subtracting 3 from the previous number. The first term of this pattern is 100. What is the seventh term of the pattern?

82 (EIGHTY-TWO)

44. These insects are related to both wasps and ants. They feed on nectar and pollen and live in either large colonies or small hives. Identify these black and yellow insects that, in some cases, make wax and honey.

BEE(S)

45. This word applies to shapes with a curving, flowing appearance. They are often asymmetrical and based on shapes found in nature. State this opposite of geometric shapes.

ORGANIC (SHAPE OR FORM)

46. Solve for X in this equation. X equals Y minus 2 when Y equals 10. What is the value of X?

8 (EIGHT)

47. Paintings in this genre include Frederic Edwin Church's The Icebergs and Winslow Homer's The Gulf Stream. Give the word for a painting of the ocean.

SEASCAPE(S)

48. In rare cases, the Bengal one of these mammals may have white fur. The Sumatran, Malayan, Indochinese, and Siberian species are all endangered. Identify this large cat with orange fur and black stripes.

TIGER(S)

49. The Fifth amendment to the U.S. Constitution states that without this two-word term, one shall not be "deprived of life, liberty, or property." Give the two-word term which refers to a citizen's right to be treated fairly and lawfully in legal matters.

DUE PROCESS

50. This punctuation mark can divide a word at the end of a line of text. It also separates parts of compound words like "merry-go-round" and "sister-in-law." Give the name of this punctuation mark, which is sometimes confused with the dash.

HYPHEN

51. The local fruit stand sold 6 bags of apples on Monday. On Tuesday, it sold five-sixths as many bags. How many bags of apples did the fruit stand sell on Monday and Tuesday combined?

11 (ELEVEN) (BAGS OF APPLES)

52. Because the artist used oil-based paints on plaster, this mural has been restored numerous times since its 1498 completion. It decorates a wall in a convent in Milan, Italy. Identify this depiction of Jesus's final meal with his disciples, painted by Leonardo da Vinci.

(THE) LAST SUPPER

53. Gutzon Borglum is best remembered for designing this massive sculpture within the Black Hills of South Dakota. Name this national memorial that features the carved faces of four U.S. presidents.

(MOUNT) RUSHMORE (NATIONAL MEMORIAL)

54. Cirrhosis scars this organ, which hepatitis can also damage. As the body's largest and heaviest internal organ, it breaks down toxins and stores sugars, vitamins, and minerals. What is this organ that produces bile to help digest fats?

LIVER

55. This part of speech accounts for the English language's most common word. It contains only three words, with two being indefinite and one being definite. Give the part of speech of "a," "an," and "the."

ARTICLE(S)

56. An example of this sentence structure is, "Wherever you go, you can always find hope." What kind of sentence consists of one independent clause and at least one dependent clause?

COMPLEX (SENTENCE)

57. Like airplanes, this type of craft moves by jet propulsion. However, it carries its oxygen supply, which means it can work in space. Give the name of this device that can launch missiles, fireworks, and spacecraft.

ROCKET(S)

58. The radius of a circle is 15 centimeters. What is the diameter of the circle in centimeters?

30 (THIRTY CENTIMETERS)

59. Rooms within this residence include the East Room, the Treaty Room, Lincoln Bedroom, and the Oval Office. Give the name of the presidential residence located at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, D.C.

WHITE HOUSE

60. In Eastern Woodlands music, this technique happens when a leader sings a short melody that dancers echo in unison. Its African origins made this style a staple of early American gospel music. Identify this compositional style that resembles a conversation.

CALL AND RESPONSE (Accept CALL AND ANSWER)

End of Second Half – Begin Three-Minute Inquiry Period

Extra Questions

61. This seven-time men's World Player of the Year moved to Barcelona at age 13. Since 2021, he has played professionally for the Paris Saint-Germain F. C. Name this soccer star who led Argentina's national team to the 2022 World Cup championship.

(LIONEL) MESSI

62. Spelling required. The student's grades made him ineligible to participate in extracurriculars. Spell the word from the previous sentence that is a synonym of "disqualified."

I-N-E-L-I-G-I-B-L-E

63. The temperature was 32 degrees. By noon it increased by X degrees. What is the value of X if it was 50 degrees at noon?

18 (EIGHTEEN DEGREES)

64. This man received a Nobel Prize for explaining the photoelectric effect. He also developed the special theory of relativity. Which scientist's name is now a nickname for any very smart person?

(ALBERT) EINSTEIN

65. Initially becoming popular in the American Pacific Northwest, this athletic activity skyrocketed during the COVID-19 pandemic and has recently been described as the United States' fastest-growing sport. Give the somewhat unusual name of this racket sport, often described as combining badminton, ping-pong, and tennis.

PICKLEBALL