

1. Rarely, this part of sheet music contains one or more natural symbols. It can appear after a barline, but is normally found immediately after the clef. Name this set of sharps or flats that tells whether a piece is in, for example, D minor or A major.

KEY SIGNATURE

2. This number is 10 times as large as 60. What number is equal to 60 times 10?

600 (SIX HUNDRED)

3. In this novel, Uncle Ob views Cletus Underwood as his so-called "afterlife antenna." With Summer, they travel to Putnam County, West Virginia, to ask a medium for help in contacting the deceased title character. Give the name of this Newbery Medal-winning Cynthia Rylant novel.

MISSING MAY

4. The only place in which this distinct type of weather-related phenomenon regularly occurs in the Western Hemisphere is at the Cumberland Falls in southeastern Kentucky. What is this type of phenomenon which is similar to a rainbow but is produced by a different light source?

MOONBOW

5. This word describes objects that allow some, but not all, light to pass through them. What is this quality between transparent and opaque?

TRANSLUCENT (Accept other word forms)

6. It takes 10 tiles to go across the room. Each tile is 12 inches long. How many inches long is the room?

120 (ONE HUNDRED TWENTY INCHES)

7. Like its protagonist, this book's author is a member of the Turtle Mountain Band of Ojibwe [oh-JIB-way]. In the story, her tribe fights the so-called "black snake" of an oil pipeline that threatens a natural resource. What is this recent Caldecott Medal Winner, written by Carole Lindstrom?

WE ARE WATER PROTECTORS

8. Since 1981, this two-door luxury sports car has been produced in Bowling Green, Kentucky, home of a museum dedicated to it. Give the name of this iconic sports car manufactured by Chevrolet.

(CHEVROLET or CHEVY) CORVETTE

9. Musicians from this city include Aretha Franklin and Eminem. In 1959, Berry Gordy founded a record company there that successfully blended white and African-American popular music. Identify this Midwestern birthplace of Motown.

DETROIT (MICHIGAN)

10. This simple machine lets heavy objects be slid, rather than lifted, to a higher point. Slides and ramps are both examples of what simple machine--a flat surface with one end higher than the other?

INCLINED PLANE

11. Every magnet is called a "di-" one of these because it has two of them. Like ones repel each other, while opposite ones attract each other. Identify these ends of a magnet that respectively point north and south.

POLE(S)

12. This woodwind pitched in B-flat or A has 17 keys, including an octave key to reach higher notes. Its solo opens George Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, and it represents the cat in Prokofiev's [pro-KAH-fee-evz] Peter and the Wolf. Give the name of this single-reed woodwind.

CLARINET

13. The six U.S. states generally said to comprise this region are Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Maine, and Vermont. Give the two-word name for a region in the American Northeast which is also used by a professional football franchise known as the Patriots.

NEW ENGLAND

14. Among this man's poems for youngsters are "The Lamplighter" and "My Shadow." Both appear in his 1885 volume A Child's Garden of Verses. Identify this author of the novel Treasure Island.

(ROBERT LOUIS) STEVENSON

15. The baker cuts a cherry pie into 12 equal pieces. He sells 3 pieces of the cherry pie. In lowest terms, what fraction of the cherry pie was left?

3/4 (THREE-FOURTHS) (ACCEPT: THREE-QUARTERS)

16. This composer nicknamed his Sixth Symphony Pastoral. He originally dedicated his Third Symphony to Napoleon, but later named it Eroica [uh-ROW-ick-uh]. Name this Classical and Romantic Era composer, who also wrote a Choral Symphony.

(LUDWIG VAN) BEETHOVEN

17. In this novel, homeless Buddy Clark belongs to a city-wide network called the "Tomorrow Billys." He helps the protagonist, a 300-pound musical prodigy, escape his overprotective mother. What is this Virginia Hamilton novel?

(THE) PLANET OF JUNIOR BROWN

18. This type of fossil can be internal or external. When one fills in, a cast fossil forms. Identify this negative image of an organism that makes an impression in substrate.

MOLD (FOSSIL)

19. Roughly half of the worldwide supply of this type of plant has been bred by a single ranch based in California, the Paul Ecke Ranch. Recognized by its green and brilliant red foliage, this plant accounts for around one in every 4 potted plants purchased annually in the United States, with much of those purchases made in the later part of the year. Name this plant, popularly displayed at Christmastime.

POINSETTIA(S)

20. Eighteen students played basketball, six students played volleyball, and five students played softball at recess. What is the ratio of the students playing basketball to the total students playing volleyball and softball?

18:11 (EIGHTEEN TO ELEVEN) (ACCEPT: EIGHTEEN OVER 11 OR EIGHTEEN-ELEVENTHS)

21. This reference work's name derives from the Greek for "well-rounded education." Like the dictionary, it once consisted of many large books whose entries on a wide variety of topics were arranged alphabetically. Name this reference work still produced by Britannica.

ENCYCLOPEDIA

22. The name of this mythical location can now refer to any supposedly miraculous cure against aging. Name this mythical spring for which Juan Ponce de Leon was searching in 1513 when he landed in modern-day Florida.

FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

23. The ballroom version of this dance comes in both American and International Styles. Its slow, slow, quick, quick, slow steps stretch over 8 beats. What is this dance claimed by both Uruguay and Argentina?

TANGO

24. In general, these clouds pop up on sunny days to indicate fair weather. They are low clouds that grow vertically from flat bottoms. Give the name of these clouds that resemble puffy cotton balls.

CUMULUS (CLOUD(S))

25. Every question on the math test is worth 5 percent of the total. How many questions comprise the complete test?

20 (TWENTY QUESTIONS)

26. In the United States, one metric ton equals 1,016.05 (SAY: One thousand sixteen point zero five) kilograms. How many kilograms are equivalent to 3 metric tons?

3,048.15 (THREE THOUSAND FORTY-EIGHT POINT FIFTEEN KILOGRAMS)

27. One tall tale explains that this man once splashed a frog with water and a thunderstorm resulted. In other stories, he overcomes blizzards, cyclones, and grasshoppers and witnesses nature creating popcorn balls. Identify this fictional Swedish-born Nebraska farmer.

(FEBOLD) FEBOLDSON

28. Though this 47-page work was published anonymously when it was first printed in January 1776, its author was Thomas Paine. Give the name of Paine's pamphlet which became a best-selling sensation in colonial America and helped strengthen support for declaring independence from Great Britain.

COMMON SENSE

29. This choreographer's first dance for a ballet company was 1944's Fancy Free. He was both choreographer and director for the musicals Gypsy and Fiddler on the Roof. Give the name of this West Side Story choreographer.

(JEROME) ROBBINS

30. This astronomical body can originate when a large star's gravity pulls it inward on itself. The object's gravity also pulls in any matter that approaches. Identify these incredibly dense bodies from which no electromagnetic radiation, including light, can escape.

BLACK HOLE(S)

31. This part of a cell mostly consists of proteins and phospholipids [FOSS-fo-lip-idz]. What is this porous barrier that separates a cell's interior from the outside environment?

(CELL) MEMBRANE

32. This musical's songs include "Human Again," "If I Can't Love Her," and "A Change in Me." Like the movie on which it's based, it features the personified objects Lumière [loo-mee-AIR], Cogsworth, Babette, Chip, and Mrs. Potts. Name this Disney musical about Belle and a disguised prince.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

33. In this fairy tale, a young man's older brothers inherit their father's mill and donkey. However, the youngest son marries a princess because his pet kills an ogre and brings the king gifts. Identify this fairy tale about a shoe-wearing cat.

PUSS IN BOOTS

34. This revolt against Colonial Governor William Berkeley resulted in the burning of the Jamestown settlement. Give the name of this first popular revolt to occur in the English colonies.

BACON'S REBELLION

35. The sum of the interior angles of this regular polygon equals 1,260 degrees. Each interior angle of this geometric figure measures 140 degrees. What regular polygon has nine sides?

NONAGON

36. This closely woven white cloth is tightly wrapped around a wooden structure. Artists often prepare it with gesso [JESS-oh]. Name this hemp, linen, or cotton fabric that artists paint on.

CANVAS

37. Correct the following sentence, if necessary: When he's finished playing with the ball, he'll give it to you or me.

NO CORRECTION NEEDED (Accept equivalents)

38. A parallelogram has a height of 8 units and a base of 10 units. What is the area of the parallelogram in square units?

80 (SQUARE UNITS)

39. Forests filled with this type of tree exist in northeastern Asia, western Eurasia, and eastern North America. Chestnuts, birches, beeches, elms, oaks, and maples are all examples. What do we call trees that shed their leaves?

DECIDUOUS [duh-SID-yoo-us]

40. This warship was newly built when it took part in the first engagement between two ironclad warships at the Battle of Hampton Roads in March 1862. Give the name of the Union vessel which engaged in that influential naval battle with the rebuilt USS Merrimack.

(USS) MONITOR

41. The first half of this compound word is an animal that runs in the Kentucky Derby. The second half is an antonym of "work." State this compound word that refers to a rough, rowdy type of fun.

HORSEPLAY

42. Along with a navigator, Fred Noonan, this aviator mysteriously disappeared over the Pacific Ocean in 1937. Identify the iconic aviator who, in 1932, became the first woman to complete a solo flight across the Atlantic Ocean.

(AMELIA) EARHART

43. Hot Dog Haven is offering a special menu with four different buns, eight different toppings, and two different hot dog lengths. How many different hot dogs can be ordered from this special menu?

64 (SIXTY-FOUR)

44. Two-word name, please. This mollusk is most likely either the largest or second-largest living invertebrate. Its massive eye is more than 10 inches in diameter, while its whole body can weigh up to 2,000 pounds. Identify this marine animal with 2 large fins, 2 long tentacles, and 8 arms.

GIANT SQUID

45. This type of paint is more vibrant and less expensive than oil paint. Commercially available since the 1950's, it is fast-drying and water-based. Name this alternative to watercolor and tempera paint.

ACRYLIC (PAINT)

46. The first four numbers in a sequence are 16, 32, 64, and 128. What is the fifth term in the sequence?

256 (TWO HUNDRED FIFTY-SIX)

47. This ancient Greek architectural order is found on Rome's Pantheon and the Temple of Olympian Zeus in Athens. Its thin columns have vertical grooves and capitals sculpted to resemble acanthus [uh-KAN-thus] leaves. Identify this most elaborate Greek architectural order.

CORINTHIAN (ORDER)

48. For certain amphibian species, this is the name for their aquatic larval stage. Typically lasting from 1 to 3 months, it includes the transformation of gills into lungs, the tail's resorption, and the growth of hind limbs. Identify this stage between egg and froglet or toadlet.

TADPOLE(S) (Accept POLLIWOG(S))

49. Since 2005, the title of this highest ranking official within the U.S. government's judicial branch has been held by John Roberts. What judicial position is typically viewed as being the most influential member of the U.S. Supreme Court?

CHIEF JUSTICE

50. If this punctuation is found at the end of a sentence, it contains an extra dot. It shows that one or more words has been omitted from a sentence. Name this punctuation mark that usually looks like three periods.

ELLIPSIS

51. Tommy is stacking red and white blocks into identical stacks. He has 4 red blocks and 14 white blocks. What is the greatest number of stacks he can make without having any blocks left over?

2 (TWO STACKS)

52. This artist completed portraits of Elizabeth Taylor, Marilyn Monroe, and Elvis Presley. He silk-screened wooden crates to resemble Brillo boxes and painted a series of Coca-Cola themed works. Identify this Pop artist of Campbell's Soup Cans.

(ANDY) WARHOL

53. This amendment was added to the U.S. Constitution in 1795 and deals with an issue known as state sovereign immunity. Which Constitutional amendment, which protects states from being sued by citizens of other states, was the first amendment added after the Bill of Rights?

11(TH) (AMENDMENT)

54. Early in her career, this woman cared for sick and wounded Crimean War servicemen in Turkey. She revolutionized hospitals by insisting on sanitary conditions and good diets for patients. Who was this woman who made nursing a respectable female career?

(FLORENCE) NIGHTINGALE

55. This type of phrase is part of the sentence, "Running with scissors is a dangerous activity." In it, a verb acts as a noun. Name this type of phrase containing a verb that ends in -ing.

GERUND [JAIR-und] (PHRASE)

56. What is the following sentence's grammatical structure? "I passed the test, but I would've gotten an A if I had studied harder."

COMPOUND-COMPLEX (SENTENCE)

57. Scientists working in this branch of zoology may study beetles, caterpillars, or bees. What do we call the study of insects?

ENTOMOLOGY

58. A Lego set costs $15.99. Harold buys two sets. Discounting tax, how much money did he spend?

$31.98 (THIRTY-ONE DOLLARS AND NINETY-EIGHT CENTS)

59. Prior to collapsing, FTX was a leading company concerned with the exchange of this form of currency of which Bitcoin is an example. Give the name for this form of digital currency.

CRYPTO (CURRENCY)

60. This country's tribes include the Ewe [AY-way], Fante, and Ashanti [uh-SHAHN-tee]. For 150 years, it was the center of Britain's African slave trade, with about half a million of its people being transported to the American colonies. Which West African country gave us the colorful kente [KEN-tay] cloth?

GHANA