

1. This musical rest is a black box placed under the staff's fourth line. In 4/4 time, which rest is worth 4 beats?

WHOLE (REST)

2. These whole numbers are not divisible by two. Adding 57 and 32 will equal this type of number. What type of whole numbers are 29 and 97?

ODD (NUMBERS)

3. In this novel, deaf Valencia narrates her portions from a first-person perspective. An omniscient [ahm-NISH-unt] narrator speaks for bully Chet, shy Virgil, and psychic Kaori. Identify this Newbery Medal-winning novel by Erin Entrada Kelly.

HELLO, UNIVERSE

4. A national recreation area lying between this lake and Kentucky Lake is known as Land Between the Lakes. Name this lake which extends from Livingston, Lyon, and Trigg counties in Kentucky into Middle Tennessee.

(LAKE) BARKLEY

5. This type of substance is either ionic or covalent. It occurs when two or more elements are chemically joined. Water and table salt are examples of what?

(CHEMICAL) COMPOUND(S)

6. Cameron needs 750 beads to make 50 necklaces for the craft fair. Each necklace will have the same number of beads. How many beads will be in each necklace?

15 (FIFTEEN BEADS)

7. This book earned its author-illustrator the second of his three Caldecott Medals. Its title characters rescue dragons from being slain and lure the cat and the fiddle out of their nursery rhyme. In which David Wiesner [WEEZ-ner] book does the trio of protagonists outsmart the Big Bad Wolf?

(THE) THREE PIGS

8. A Kentucky parkway once known as Daniel Boone Parkway was renamed for this congressman who began serving his 22nd term in congress in 2023. Identify this congressman who, as of 2022, is the longest serving member of the U.S. House of Representatives for Kentucky.

(HAROLD "HAL") ROGERS

9. This rhythmic choice is vital to jazz, ragtime, and reggae music. Identify this technique of shifting a piece's normal accent to typically unaccented beats.

SYNCOPIATION

10. Sometimes, this simple machine works like a lever by multiplying force. Part of it consists of a cylindrical drum with ropes applied to it. Identify this simple machine, whose examples include a door knob and car tires.

WHEEL AND AXLE

11. Full name, please. The human skin uses this type of radiation to produce Vitamin D. However, too much of it can cause a sunburn and, in some cases, skin cancer. What are these rays, whose name is abbreviated to UV?

ULTRAVIOLET (RAYS)

12. This first modern jazz form rose to popularity in the mid-1940s. It featured fast, improvised chords and took its name from syllables used in scat singing. Name this style pioneered by Dizzy Gillespie and Charlie Parker.

(BE)BOP

13. One well-known example of this type of island is named Castaway, a popular cruise line stop owned by the Walt Disney company. Give the name for a type of tiny, sandy island that forms upon a coral reef.

CAY (ACCEPT: KEY)

14. This author-illustrator's early books include And to Think That I Saw It on Mulberry Street and The 500 Hats of Bartholomew Cubbins. He later created the Lorax, Yertle the Turtle, and Horton the Elephant. Name this creator of The Cat in the Hat.

(DOCTOR) SEUSS (Accept (THEODOR) GEISEL)

15. There are 12 forks in the drawer and $\frac{1}{6}$ of the forks are plastic and the rest are metal. How many metal forks are there in the drawer?

10 (TEN METAL FORKS) (ACCEPT: $\frac{5}{6}$ OF THE FORKS)

16. This woodwind has a curved bocal [BO-call] and a pear-shaped bell. Despite its name, it probably didn't originate in Great Britain. What is this double reed woodwind that plays a fifth lower than the oboe?

ENGLISH HORN (Accept COR ANGLAIS)

17. As this novel opens, the title characters await their chaplain father's return home from the Civil War. By the book's end, one of the sisters has died, while the other three have grown and married. Name this story of Meg, Jo, Beth, and Amy by Louisa May Alcott.

LITTLE WOMEN

18. This hollow mineral body is found in limestone and certain shales. It has a chalcedony [kal-SED-uh-nee] layer and forms when a fluid-filled cavity expands. What is this rock filled with colorful crystals?

GEODE(S)

19. In terms of generational populations, individuals considered part of this generation are second only to millennials in terms of total numbers. Give the name for the generation of Americans, born between approximately 1946 and 1964, who were born amid a significant increase in births following World War Two.

(BABY) BOOMERS (ACCEPT: (THE) BABY BOOM)

20. Caesar's Pizzeria sells fifteen cheese pizzas to every three pepperoni pizzas. On Super Bowl Sunday, they sold 30 pepperoni pizzas. How many cheese pizzas did they sell?

150 (ONE HUNDRED FIFTY CHEESE PIZZAS)

21. This literary technique is essential to allegory. Name this technique in which a word, image, character, or other literary element represents a larger idea.

SYMBOLISM

22. The name of this state capital comes from a French explorer who named it after a red stick he found on its lands. The French translation of "red stick" provides the name for what capital of a southern U.S. state?

BATON ROUGE (LOUISIANA)

23. A chorale from one of this man's cantatas inspired the hymn "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring." Four of his six sons, including Carl Philipp Emanuel and Johann Christian, also became composers. Which Baroque composer wrote The Well-Tempered Clavier [kluh-VEER]?

(JOHANN SEBASTIAN) BACH

24. This type of two-word weather event has winds that range from 39 to 73 miles per hour. Name this kind of cyclone that has less than hurricane force winds.

TROPICAL STORM

25. Harry prepared six gallons of his famous chili for the Chili Cook-off. He divided the chili into quart containers. How many quarts of chili did Harry make?

24 (TWENTY-FOUR QUARTS)

26. One inch equals 2.54 centimeters. How many inches are equal to 7.62 centimeters?

3 (THREE INCHES)

27. In this fable, a young shepherd devises a new way to amuse himself. Because he deceives local villagers on several occasions, they refuse to help him when a real predator attacks his flock. Which Aesop fable illustrates that, quote, "Nobody believes a liar, even when he tells the truth"?

(THE) BOY WHO CRIED WOLF

28. Despite being the last of the original 13 colonies, it became the fourth state added to the Union. James Oglethorpe founded this colony in hopes it could become home to individuals who had been imprisoned in England for owing debt. Name this Southern colony.

GEORGIA

29. Like second position, this ballet step has an en l'air [AHN LAIR] equivalent. The dancer turns both feet out and divides her weight equally between them. In which position does one foot rest approximately 12 inches in front of the other?

FOURTH (POSITION)

30. Twelve of these astronomical groupings lie in a band called the zodiac. Other non-zodiac groupings include Orion and Ursa Major. Give the word for these 88 star clusters that resemble people, objects, or animals from mythology.

CONSTELLATION(S)

End of First Half – Begin Three-Minute Inquiry Period

Round 1 - Second Half

Elementary – 2023 Region

31. These organelles are much larger in plant cells than in animal cells. They are lined with a membrane and filled with fluid rather than cytoplasm. Name these cellular bubbles that store nutrients and waste.

VACUOLE(S) [VAK-yoo-oh]

32. This ballet dancer retired at age 29 after a schizophrenic breakdown. He could perform en pointe and starred in Petrushka [puh-TROOSH-kuh] and The Firebird for the Ballets Russes [bal-EY ROOS]. Who also choreographed The Afternoon of a Faun and The Rite of Spring?

(VASLAV) NIJINSKY [VAH-sluhf ni-ZHIN-skee]

33. This nursery rhyme's last stanza includes the lines, quote, "Then the traveler in the dark / Thanks you for your tiny spark..." Its better-known first verse describes the title body as, quote, "Up above the world so high, / Like a diamond in the sky." Name this rhyme about an object you see when the night sky is cloudless.

TWINKLE, TWINKLE, LITTLE STAR

34. Multiple answers required. The poet Ralph Waldo Emerson later referred to the shot that began these two battles as the "shot heard round the world". Give the name for the military engagements fought on April 19, 1775 which officially began the American Revolutionary War.

(BATTLES OF) LEXINGTON (AND) CONCORD

35. Two ninety-degree angles are defined by this term. Also two angles with measures of 80 degrees and 100 degrees are classified as these angles. What is any pair of angles with a sum of 180 degrees?

SUPPLEMENTARY (ANGLES)

36. Before this theater burned in 1613, it could house about 3,000 people in its yard and galleries. A replica opened in 1997 on the Banks of the Thames [TEMZ] in London. What was this theater where many of Shakespeare's plays premiered?

(THE) GLOBE (THEATRE)

37. This Latin prefix can mean either "not" or "opposite of." What is this prefix that might come before "trust," "like," or "honest"?

DIS- (Accept stated or spelled)

38. A cube measures 2 units on each side. What is the volume of the cube in cubic units?

8 (CUBIC UNITS)

39. This part of a flower consists of one or more carpels. Its individual sections are the stigma, style, and ovary. Give the name for a flower's female reproductive organ.

PISTIL

40. This transaction, totaling about $15 million, was authorized by the administration of President Thomas Jefferson in 1803. Give the two-word name for this transaction in which the United States acquired more than 800,000 square miles of additional land from France.

LOUISIANA PURCHASE

41. The first half of this compound word means, quote, "a round frame that turns on the axle." The second half of the word is a piece of furniture you can sit on. What is this compound word for a mobility aid for people who can't walk?

WHEELCHAIR

42. President Lyndon B. Johnson was aboard an aircraft known by this name when he was sworn into office in Dallas, Texas in 1963. Give the three-word name for an airplane used to fly the president of the United States.

AIR FORCE ONE

43. You toss a fair coin exactly three times. What is the probability that the coin will show three heads?

1/8 (ONE-EIGHTH) (ACCEPT: 1 IN 8 OR 1 OVER 8)

44. This relative of the sea anemone [uh-NEM-uh-nee] has a polyp body whose mouth contains tentacles. It can lay eggs or bud and, as it grows, attach to surfaces where it remains for the rest of its life. Name this animal that can form large colonies, including Australia's Great Barrier Reef.

CORAL

45. Multiple answer required. Primary colors cannot be mixed from other colors. What are the three primary colors of art?

RED, YELLOW, (AND) BLUE (any order)

46. A number pattern is created by adding 6 to the previous term. The pattern begins with 14. What is the fifth term?

38 (THIRTY-EIGHT)

47. This national landmark is made of an iron framework covered with thin copper sheets. Over the years, exposure to oxygen has turned the copper green. Identify this large sculpture of a woman holding a torch and a book, which stands in New York Harbor.

(THE) STATUE OF LIBERTY

48. Unlike bone, this substance contains neither nerves nor blood vessels. It is the only component of sharks' skeletons and, in mammalian embryos, forms the skeleton before bones develop. What is this tissue that makes up the human ears and the tip of the nose?

CARTILAGE

49. Kentucky's constitution requires this position which is responsible for financial oversight of the state government. Since 2016, Mike Harmon has served in what elected role whose duties include examining financial records of the state government and all state agencies?

AUDITOR (OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS OF KENTUCKY)

50. How many words in the following sentence should be capitalized? "Big Ben is a large clock tower that stands in London, England."

FOUR

51. You are working to find the least common multiple of two numbers. One of the numbers is 10 and the second number is 4. What is the least common multiple of 10 and 4?

20 (TWENTY)

52. Today, this process creates many mass-produced print and graphic items, including books, maps, posters, and newspapers. The artist uses a greasy oil or fat to divide a smooth surface into regions that absorb and repel ink. What is this printmaking process, whose name indicates it once required a stone?

LITHOGRAPHY [lith-AH-gruh-fee] (Accept word forms)

53. The U.S. State Department issues this type of document which is generally valid for ten years for those over 16, and five years for those younger. What type of travel document is generally required for an American citizen to travel internationally?

PASSPORT

54. Also called hydrophobia, this disease can cause throat spasms, delirium, and seizures. Bites from infected animals like dogs, cats, and raccoons can spread it to humans. Name this virus that is fatal if not treated before symptoms appear.

RABIES

55. Like adjectives, words belonging to this part of speech can be in the positive, comparative, or superlative degree. Many of these words end in -ly. Give the part of speech of "happily" and "most slowly."

ADVERB

56. This type of clause is missing from simple and compound sentences. It is, however, found in complex and compound-complex sentences. Identify this kind of clause that can't stand alone.

DEPENDENT (CLAUSE) (Accept SUBORDINATE (CLAUSE))

57. Branches of this science include horticulture, agronomy, and forestry. Name this science, which is sometimes called plant biology.

BOTANY

58. Give your answer as a decimal number. The top of the desk is 25 inches wide and the desk pad on the desk is 14.5 inches wide. How many inches of the desktop in width will not be covered by the pad?

10.5 (TEN AND 5 TENTHS INCHES) (ACCEPT: TEN POINT FIVE OR SIMILAR RESPONSE)

59. Examples of this economic principle might include federal funds used to produce a new vaccine or a company needing to pay its workers overtime to rush a new product to market. What economics term can be defined as the total amount of money or other capital spent in order to provide a service or to produce a good?

COST(S)

60. For the Medici family, this Renaissance artist painted Adoration of the Magi. He included Roman goddesses in an allegory of spring titled La Primavera [pree-muh-VAIR-uh]. Who was this artist of The Birth of Venus?

(SANDRO) BOTTICELLI

End of Second Half – Begin Three-Minute Inquiry Period

Extra Questions

61-AH. This Christian sect's worship services once featured spontaneous and, later, choreographed dancing. Members lived in isolated farm communities where men and women were separated and made wooden furniture. Mother Ann Lee founded what group, who once had a village at Mercer County's Pleasant Hill?

(THE) SHAKER(S)

62-LA. Spelling required. She received a scholarship for her visual art." Spell the word in the previous sentence that means "relating to sight."

V-I-S-U-A-L

63-MA. The spinner for a board game is divided into 8 equal sectors. Four of the sectors are blue; 2 are white; and the remaining sectors are black. What is the probability that the spinner will NOT land on black?

3/4 (THREE-FOURTHS) (ACCEPT: 75 PERCENT)

64-SC. In 1977, this scientist founded her namesake Institute for Wildlife Research, Education, and Conservation. For decades, she studied a certain primate species in Kenya and Tanzania [tan-zuh-NEE-uh]. Give the name of this primatologist, who conducted pioneering research on chimpanzees.

(JANE) GOODALL

65-SS. The name of this act, enacted in 1787 by the Congress of the Confederation, references direction of new territory in relation to the Ohio River. Give the name of this important legislation that organized territory within the United States that would eventually become such states as Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, and Michigan.

NORTHWEST ORDINANCE