

1. This word applies to the top line of choir music. It also describes the highest-pitched models of a particular instrument, such as the saxophone. Give this word for the highest singing voice.

SOPRANO

2. Adding two nonzero non-negative numbers will always equal this type of number. What type of number has a value larger than zero?

POSITIVE (NUMBERS)

3. In this novel, Lady Furnival orders John Aycliffe to murder the title 13-year-old. That orphan travels with Bear the wandering jester and, at the novel's conclusion, abandons the lead cross that proves his high parentage. Medieval England is the setting for what Newbery-winning Avi novel?

CRISPIN (: THE CROSS OF LEAD)

4. Murray State University is in this area of the extreme western part of Kentucky. The area is bounded partly by the Mississippi River, the Ohio River, and the Tennessee River. Identify this region of Kentucky named for the United State's 7th president.

JACKSON PURCHASE

5. Occasionally, this temperature for a substance is not the same temperature as its freezing point. For water, it is 32 degrees Fahrenheit or 0 degrees Celsius. What is this point at which a solid turns into a liquid?

MELTING (POINT)

6. There are 20 students in art class. Each student created 45 paintings. How many paintings did the class complete?

900 (NINE HUNDRED PAINTINGS)

7. This Caldecott winner advises the reader, quote, "Never leave a thumbtack where you might sit on it." Its title characters are a Napville policeman and his canine partner, who give safety tips to schoolchildren. Give the title of this Peggy Rathmann book.

OFFICER BUCKLE AND GLORIA

8. This network of television stations was founded in Kentucky in 1968 and is today the largest such network of the Public Broadcast System, or PBS. Give the name of this educational television network which airs PBS television throughout Kentucky as well as coverage of local news and issues.

KENTUCKY EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION (ACCEPT: KET)

9. This type of entertainment began in Japan when a band failed to appear for a gig at a bar. James Corden used to host a "carpool" version of it. Give the word for an amateur singing to recorded instrumental accompaniment.

KARAOKE [kare-ee-OH-kee]

10. A spiral staircase is a large example of this simple machine. It consists of an inclined plane wrapped around a central rod. Name this simple machine, which can also be a metal fastener that is rotated into wood.

SCREW

11. In the U.S., this type of current's frequency is 60 Hertz. Nikola Tesla preferred this kind of current, which a transformer can convert from the electricity in power lines. Which type of electricity constantly switches directions?

ALTERNATING (CURRENT)

12. This string instrument originated in Africa, came to America with slaves, and was later exported to Europe. Its body looks like a large tambourine, while its five metal strings pass over a fretted neck. Name this instrument popular with bluegrass musicians.

BANJO

13. Examples of this form of geographic grouping in the United States include Alaska's Aleutians, the Florida Keys, and the islands that form the state of Hawaii. Give the term for a group or chain of islands.

ARCHIPELAGO

14. An example of this figure of speech is, "I'm so hungry I could eat a hippo." Identify this type of exaggeration that is often funny and isn't meant to be taken literally.

HYPERBOLE [hi-PER-buh-lee]

15. Fernando fills a fruit platter with strawberries, bananas, and blackberries. One-sixth of the plate has bananas and one-half of the plate has strawberries. In lowest terms, what part of the plate contains blackberries?

1/3 (ONE-THIRD)

16. Subtitled A Tone Poem for Orchestra, this work premiered in Carnegie Hall in 1928. The composer called it a "rhapsodic ballet," and it inspired a 1951 movie musical starring Gene Kelly. The French capital's name appears in the title of which George Gershwin work?

(AN) AMERICAN IN PARIS

17. This novel's characters include Louise the Larger, a black garden snake, and a dragon called Proginoskes [prog-ih-NO-skeez]. Meg Murry travels inside her brother Charles Wallace's mitochondria in order to save him from a deadly disease. This is the plot of which fantasy novel from Madeleine L'Engle's Time Quintet?

(A) WIND IN THE DOOR

18. Rocks in this class are either extrusive or intrusive. Gabbro, granite, and basalt all belong to this category. Give the name for rocks that form when magma or lava cools and solidifies.

IGNEOUS (ROCK)

19. Due to its reputation for producing a certain beverage, a region of this U.S. state is often called "Wine Country". Name the western state whose "Wine Country" is centered around the Napa Valley near San Francisco.

CALIFORNIA

20. A restaurant prepared 5 bacon quiches for lunch. Only 2 and 2/3 of the quiche was served at lunch. How much of the quiche was not served?

2 1/3 (TWO AND ONE-THIRD QUICHES)

21. This part of a plot may begin after the story's inciting incident. On Freytag's Pyramid, the left slanting side represents it. Which part of a story occurs between the exposition and climax?

RISING ACTION

22. An important figure in England's Elizabethan age, he was responsible for sending settlers to the New World to establish Roanoke Colony, the so-called "Lost Colony". Give the name of this English statesman for whom the capital of North Carolina is named.

(SIR WALTER) RALEIGH

23. This dance style's pioneers include Bill "Bojangles" Robinson and Savion [SAY-vee-ahn] Glover. Among its basic steps are the spank, brush, flap, and shuffle. Identify this percussive dance that requires shoes with metal plates on the soles.

TAP (DANCE)

24. In the Köppen classification system, this is the only category that isn't entirely based on temperature. It applies to the semi-arid steppe and the arid desert and includes Earth's hottest spots. What is this climate named for the small amount of annual precipitation it receives?

DRY

25. Kevin answered 90 percent of the questions correctly on his science test. He answered 45 questions correctly. How many questions were on the test?

50 (FIFTY QUESTIONS)

26. Samson buys a four pound bag of soil to use in eight flowerpots. If he divides the soil equally, how many ounces of soil will he put in each pot?

8 (EIGHT OUNCES)

27. This tall tale man worked alongside a small donkey he named Tamarack. He once cleared 100 acres of forest using an axe he borrowed from his brother. Who was this miniature sibling of Paul Bunyan?

CORDWOOD PETE

28. In Spanish colonial America, individuals with this heritage were generally not allowed to become leaders in the church or government. Individuals were generally considered as being of this heritage if they were of European or African descent but born in the West Indies. Give the name for this ethnic group that is sometimes confused with the Cajun ethnicity due to both groups' large populations in southern Louisiana.

CREOLE(S)

29. Before Martha Graham, this woman also explored freer movement than ballet provided. She often danced barefoot in loose tunics to mimic the Greek and Roman sculptures she admired. Name this so-called "mother of modern dance," who died when her scarf was caught in a car tire.

(ISADORA) DUNCAN

30. After the telescope's invention, this was the first planet to be discovered. Voyager 2 flew by this gas giant, whose methane gives it a blue-green appearance. What is this seventh planet from the sun?

URANUS

End of First Half – Begin Three-Minute Inquiry Period

Round 7 - Second Half

Elementary – 2023 Region

31. This five syllable adjective applies to all bacteria and archaea [AHR-kee-uh], as well as many protists. Give this adjective for organisms that consist of a single cell.

UNICELLULAR

32. This ancient civilization celebrated the City Dionysia [die-uh-NIZH-ee-uh] festival, where masked actors performed. Aristophanes [air-uh-STOFF-uh-nee-z] wrote its most lasting comedies, while Aeschylus [ES-kuh-luhs], Sophocles [SOF-uh-kleez], and Euripides [yuh-RIP-uh-deez] wrote many of its tragedies. In what present-day country can you see theatrical ruins in Athens?

GREECE

33. This activist was fined $100 for casting a ballot in the 1872 U.S. presidential election. In response, she gave a speech saying, quote, "It was we, the people; not we, the white male citizens...who formed the Union." Name this suffragette who, in 1979, became the first woman to appear on a circulating U.S. coin.

(SUSAN B.) ANTHONY

34. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow wrote a poem about this Plymouth colony resident's unrequited love for Priscilla Mullins. Name the subject of this poem who served as the Plymouth Colony's military advisor.

(MYLES) STANDISH

35. The measurement of angle A is 30 degrees and the measure of angle B is 60 degrees. What term defines the relationship between angles A and B?

COMPLEMENTARY (ANGLES)

36. This 15th-century theatrical form featured masked actors portraying stock characters. Slapstick comedy and improvisation were hallmarks of this style, which inspired England's Punch and Judy shows. Identify this genre, whose name is Italian for "comedy of art."

COMMEDIA DELL'ARTE [kuh-MAY-dee-uh del AR-tay]

37. In legal terms, this word names an object or document that is shown in court and referenced in written evidence. It derives from a Latin word meaning "to hold forth" or "to have." Give this word that means "to present for inspection."

EXHIBIT

38. The bases of a trapezoid are 6 units and 10 units. Its height is 18 units. What is the area of the trapezoid in square units?

144 (SQUARE UNITS)

39. Like spores, this part of a plant can be distributed by wind, water, or animals. It consists of a coat, endosperm, and embryo. Name this fertilized ovule that germinates into a new plant.

SEED(S)

40. Forces led by William Henry Harrison defeated the brother of this Shawnee leader at the Battle of Tippecanoe. He was later himself killed by Harrison's forces at the Battle of the Thames [temz]. Give the name of this Shawnee chief who joined forces with the British to capture Detroit during the War of 1812.

TECUMSEH

41. One of this word's definitions is, quote, "a dishonest scheme, trick, business, or activity." Another is, quote, "a loud noise or clamor." Identify this word that names equipment used in squash, badminton, and tennis.

RACKET

42. An often-quoted military order from this battle is, "Don't fire until you see the whites of their eyes." This battle was fought on June 17, 1775 in Charlestown, Massachusetts during the Siege of Boston. Identify this early, major battle of the American Revolution which, though won by the British, provided much needed optimism to American forces for the fighting ahead.

(BATTLE OF) BUNKER HILL

43. A spinner is divided into three equal sectors. Two of the sectors are purple and one sector is orange. What is the probability of the spinner NOT landing on purple?

1/3 (ONE-THIRD)

44. In the nests or hills these insects make, they divide themselves into males, workers, soldiers, and a queen. They can be yellow, brown, red, or black and use their two sets of jaws for eating, fighting, and carrying materials. What are these insects, whose varieties include carpenter and fire?

ANT(S)

45. This substance mixes glue with chalk, plaster, or gypsum. Give the Italian name of this paint used to prime wood or canvas.

GESSO [JESS-oh]

46. Use a division sign in your answer. Harry had 27 cookies and he put the same number of cookies into each of three bags. What numerical expression would show how many cookies are in each bag?

27 DIVIDED BY 3

47. This type of religious artwork's most frequent subjects include angels, saints, and the Virgin Mary. Traditionally, they are painted with egg tempera on wooden surfaces. What are these sacred artworks in Orthodox Christianity, which share their name with a clickable picture on a computer?

ICON(S)

48. This large mammal's eight species include spectacled, sun, and sloth. Most of its species hibernate and are omnivorous, but they all belong to the family Ursidae [OOR-see-day]. Name this group that also includes the grizzly and giant panda.

BEAR(S)

49. The holder of this local government position typically provides security within courts, serves legal documents, and helps to police and enforce laws in certain areas. Give the title of this locally elected official and sworn law enforcement officer.

SHERIFF

50. Which words need to be capitalized in the following sentence? "At the North Pole, you can see reindeer, polar bears, and Arctic foxes."

AT, NORTH, POLE, (AND) ARCTIC (any order)

51. Solve for X. Nineteen cupcakes have strawberry icing and X cupcakes have chocolate icing. If these add up to 24 cupcakes altogether, how many cupcakes have chocolate icing?

5 (FIVE CUPCAKES)

52. This artist depicted a popular Parisian entertainment in his 1890 painting The Can-Can. Critics classify his Bathers at Asnières [ahn-YAIR] as both Post-Impressionist and Neo-Impressionist. Name this Pointillist painter of Young Woman Powdering Herself.

(GEORGES) SEURAT [ZHAWRZH suh-RAH]

53. The U.S. Constitution's fifth amendment features a clause known by this two-word term which protects individuals from being punished multiple times for the same offense. The term also refers to the right to not be prosecuted a second time after being acquitted or convicted through trial. Identify this protection which shares its name with the second round of a popular trivia game show.

DOUBLE JEOPARDY

54. When this body part's tiny glands become infected, a stye forms. Technically called cilia [SILL-ee-uh], they are made of keratin and grow from follicles. Identify these small hairs that prevent dust and other foreign matter from entering the eye.

EYELASH(ES)

55. State the antecedent [ant-uh-SEE-dent] of the pronoun in the following sentence: "Natalie received an A on her presentation."

NATALIE

56. One of these phrases is part of the sentence, "I asked the children to pick up their toys." Name this kind of phrase that consists of "to" and a verb.

INFINITIVE (PHRASE)

57. Even though people use them interchangeably, this concept is different from the world wide web. It links governmental, educational, and commercial networks that use the same communication protocols. Identify this system for connecting millions of computers around the world.

(THE) INTERNET

58. Three real numbers are ordered so the second number is twice the first number and the third number is three times the second number. If the first number is 4, what is the third number?

24 (TWENTY-FOUR)

59. First issued in 1999, this form of currency is the world's second-most traded form of currency, second only to the U.S. Dollar. Give the name of the official currency of most members of the European Union.

EURO

60. Various Native American cultures have traditionally played the hand, foot, water, and powwow kinds of this instrument. West Africans created the djembe [JEM-bay] and the talking one of these percussion instruments, which they used to communicate over long distances. Name this instrument with a wooden body and a membrane head that can be struck by the hands or sticks.

DRUM(S)

End of Second Half – Begin Three-Minute Inquiry Period

Extra Questions

61-AH. This player recently broke Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's NBA record for most career points scored. After graduating from high school, he joined the Cleveland Cavaliers, whom he led to an NBA Championship in 2016. Identify this athlete, who also helped win championships for the Miami Heat and the Los Angeles Lakers.

(LEBRON) JAMES

62-LA. Spelling required. "A community pool is situated adjacent to the recreational center." Spell the word from the previous sentence that means "next to."

A-D-J-A-C-E-N-T

63-MA. A circular rug has a circumference of 14π units. What is the rug's radius in units?

7 (SEVEN UNITS)

64-SC. This physicist investigated the explosions of the space shuttles Challenger and Columbia. Before the Challenger's explosion, she had taken two trips aboard it in 1983 and 1984. Who was this first American woman in space?

(SALLY) RIDE

65-SS. These three words are included on the Seal of Kentucky above a picture of two men shaking hands. What three words precede the words "Divided We Fall" in a popular American slogan?

UNITED WE STAND