

Round 7

Elementary Regional – 2022 Governor’s Cup

1. Works in this nonfiction genre were some of the earliest historical writings. Examples include Elizabeth Leads the Way: Elizabeth Cady Stanton and The Right to Vote and A Voice Named Aretha. Give the word for a story someone writes about another person's life.

BIOGRAPHY

2. He was the third American in space, and orbited around the planet three times in 1962. In addition to being an astronaut, he was also a politician, Marine, and engineer. Identify this first American to orbit the Earth.

(JOHN HERSCHEL) GLENN (JR.)

3. This tax impacted buyers of Colonial era newspapers, as well as legal and commercial documents. A namesake Congress met in New York City to protest this tax. Identify this tax, which sparked revolutionary spirit in the American colonies.

STAMP ACT (OF 1765)

4. A number pattern has a rule that you add 3 to the first number to get the second number, and then you double the second number to get the third number. For example, if the starting number was 7, the number pattern would be 7, 10, and 20. If the starting number is 15, what is the third number in the number pattern?

36

5. A museum dedicated to this composer's work stands in Milan's La Scala opera house. His operas include Rigoletto and one about an Ethiopian princess in Egypt. Name the composer of Aida [eye-EE-duh].

(GIUSEPPE) VERDI [juh-SEP-ee VAIR-dee]

6. It is usually measured in nanometers or meters and is inversely related to frequency. It can also be measured from trough to trough. Give this term for the distance from peak to peak in a wave.

(WAVE)LENGTH

7. This battle was fought on August 19, 1782. Daniel Boone led the efforts against the Loyalists in this battle. Identify this battle from the American Revolution, fought near what is now Robertson County, Kentucky.

(BATTLE OF) BLUE LICKS

8. This novel's supporting characters include red-headed Will, Magister Reese, and John and Jennet Dark. The title character, a young girl named Alyce, learns from Jane how to help women give birth safely. Name this winner of the Newbery Medal, written by Karen Cushman.

(THE) MIDWIFE'S APPRENTICE

9. Male ballet dancers often perform this move on the ball of the foot, while ballerinas do it on their toes. Give the French word for this rapid turning of the body on one leg.

PIROUETTE [peer-uh-WET]

10. A square has a perimeter of 20 units. What is the area, in square units, of the square?
- 25 (SQUARE UNITS)
11. Many ballads, including "Sweet Betsy from Pike" and "Waltzing Matilda," fit into this musical category. Today, many examples are written down, but for centuries, they were passed down orally. Give the name for music written and performed by a culture's ordinary people.
- FOLK (MUSIC)
12. This type of poem may emphasize any letter from any part of a word. Typically, it uses the first letters of words to spell out another word or phrase. Give the name of this type of poem.
- ACROSTIC (POEM)
13. These weather events are caused each year by changes in latitude of the Intertropical Convergence Zone. This term can also refer to short-term heavy rains in local areas. Identify this term for the tropical season characterized by near constant rains, most common near the equator.
- MONSOON(S)
14. This river rises in Montana and flows south and east for over 2,000 miles. It empties into the Mississippi River at St. Louis, Missouri. What is this river, which joins with the Mississippi to form the longest river in North America?
- MISSOURI (RIVER)
15. A sweater that normally sells for $50 is on sale. If the sale advertised 20% off, what is the new price for the sweater?
- $40
16. Many members of this religious group originally belonged to the Quakers. They lived in segregated communities where they made simple furniture and refused marriage. Ann Lee founded what group that once had a village at Mercer County's Pleasant Hill?
- SHAKER(S) (Accept (THE) UNITED SOCIETY OF BELIEVERS IN CHRIST'S SECOND APPEARING)
17. Ben needs several tablespoons of sugar for a recipe. Ben doesn't have a tablespoon but he has a quarter cup. How many tablespoons are in a quarter cup?
- 4 (TABLESPOONS)
18. This amendment recognized citizenship rights for those who had formerly been slaves in the United States. It grants equal protection of the laws for all citizens of the United States. Name this amendment that protects citizenship rights for all those born or naturalized here.
- 14(TH AMENDMENT) (Accept (AMENDMENT) FOURTEEN)
19. This apparent force acts outward on a revolving object. It can be felt when you are on a spinning ride at a fair or theme park. Name this rotation force, which has a similarly named lab device.
- CENTRIFUGAL (FORCE)
20. What is the following sentence's complete subject? Al's piano lessons improve his playing.
- AL'S PIANO LESSONS

21. This Amendment was the topic of cases like Schenck versus United States and Debs versus United States. It guarantees our rights of petition and assembly, and freedom of religion, speech, and the press. Identify this amendment that starts the U.S. Bill of Rights.

FIRST (AMENDMENT) (Accept (AMENDMENT) ONE)

22. Components of this system include the thyroid, pituitary, and adrenal glands. It is highly interlinked with the nervous system. Name this organ system, important for hormone regulation.

ENDOCRINE (SYSTEM)

23. On sheet music, this dynamic marking is represented by two lowercase P's. What is this Italian word, which means a note should be played or sung very softly?

PIANISSIMO [pee-uh-NEE-see-moh]

24. Which words need to be capitalized in the following sentence? On vacation, we visited the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco.

ON, GOLDEN, GATE, BRIDGE, SAN, FRANCISCO (any order)

25. Four students form a line for the gymnastics meet. In how many different ways can they arrange themselves?

24

26. This landform is sometimes called the "Niagara of the South". At certain times, it has a rare phenomenon called a moonbow, which is formed by the mist in the air from the falls. Identify this Kentucky waterfall.

CUMBERLAND (FALLS)

27. This planet has large bluish regions at its poles, as seen during the Juno mission. It is known for a Great Red Spot and for having many large moons. Identify this largest planet in the solar system.

JUPITER

28. Jason bought a ticket to the movies and some snacks. The ticket cost $8.00 and the snacks cost $7.25. If Jason paid with a $20 bill, how much change will Jason receive?

$4.75

29. This brass instrument, a relative of the cornet and flügelhorn [FLOO-gul-horn], was invented in 1843. Common in military and brass bands, it is pitched an octave below the trumpet in C or B-flat. What is this large instrument that resembles a tuba?

EUPHONIUM

30. This symphonic fairy tale was the work of Russian composer Sergei Prokofiev [pro-KAH-fee-ufh]. It uses different instruments to represent the title child, his grandfather, a bird, a duck, a cat, and hunters. What is this story about a young boy who outsmarts a forest predator?

PETER AND THE WOLF

End of First Half – Begin Three-Minute Inquiry Period

Round 7 - Second Half

Elementary Regional – 2022 Governor's Cup

1. This colonial object traditionally showed the Lord's Prayer, the alphabet, and the ten digits. Those items were written on paper that was mounted on a wooden tablet. Identify this colonial teaching tool named for the thin membrane stretched over the paper to protect it.

HORNBOOK(S)

2. This mining method occurs mainly in Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia, and Tennessee. It involves deforesting, and causes air and water pollution. Identify this form of strip mining, in which entire hilltops may be destroyed to mine coal.

MOUNTAINTOP REMOVAL

3. It consists of matter with free electrons. It is very hot and makes up much of stars. What is this fourth state of matter?

PLASMA(S)

4. This word precedes "Trace" in the historic name of a group of central Kentucky counties. What is this word for an area with little or no human settlement?

WILDERNESS

5. Liz read one-fifth of her book on Monday. If her book contains 300 pages, how many pages did Liz read on Monday?

60 (PAGES)

6. Scientists do this with their senses or with various tools. Making these is important for coming up with research questions and for testing a hypothesis. Give this term for watching and recording something in science.

OBSERVATION(S) (Accept word forms)

7. Mark added three-eighths of a cup of milk to a bowl. Julie then added one-third of a cup of milk to the bowl. How many cups of milk are in the bowl?

17/24 (OF A CUP)

8. This Doric temple once housed a massive statue of the goddess Athena. A replica of it stands in Centennial Park in Nashville. Name this temple, whose remains stand on the Acropolis in Athens, Greece.

(THE) PARTHENON

9. This is the earth's largest mountain carving. It is located in the Black Hills of South Dakota. Name this unfinished sculpture of a famous Native American leader.

CRAZY HORSE (MEMORIAL)

10. This legendary North American creature is sometimes called a sasquatch. It supposedly lives in the mountains of western Canada and the United States' Pacific Northwest. What is this large, hairy creature named for the size of a certain body part?

BIGFOOT

11. This cathedral caught fire in April 2019. It is the most famous of the Gothic cathedrals of the Middle Ages. Name this Paris landmark that was not completely destroyed.

NOTRE-DAME (CATHEDRAL) (Accept NOTRE-DAME DE PARIS)

12. These single-celled organisms can use almost any organic compound for food. Some cause diseases, but most are harmless, and even beneficial. What organisms live in enormous numbers, even in your gut?

BACTERIA (Accept BACTERIUM)

13. Mrs. Vance asks Andrew to choose a number between 7 and 23. He wants to pick the number that's exactly in the middle. Which number should Andrew pick?

15

14. This founder of the Society of Spiritual Arts taught Doris Humphrey and Martha Graham. The so-called "first lady of American dance," she created dances inspired by Egyptian, Indian, and Japanese sources. Who founded a modern dance school with her husband Ted Shawn?

(RUTH) ST. DENIS

15. This word can refer to, quote, "a metal plate or rim for the hoof of an animal." What is this word that, for humans, may refer to a sneaker or sandal?

SHOE

16. This settlement was located at the southern tip of Manhattan Island in the 17th century. It served as the seat of the colonial government for New Netherland. Give this name for the early Dutch settlement in North America.

NEW AMSTERDAM

17. This scale for measuring a property of minerals uses talc as an example of number one. The highest ranking mineral on this scale is the diamond. Identify the scale that measures the ability of one mineral to scratch another.

MOHS (HARDNESS SCALE)

18. This material makes a piece of pottery stain-resistant and, in some cases, food safe. It is transparent, but adding metals to it can produce a variety of colors. Name this glass coating that fuses to a ceramic surface during kiln firing.

GLAZE

19. Spelling required. Jazz music gives grandpa nostalgia for his adolescence and young adulthood. Spell the word in the preceding sentence meaning, quote, "a longing for a time or event that has passed."
- N-O-S-T-A-L-G-I-A
20. State your answer as a fraction. Two fair six-sided dice are tossed. What is the probability of rolling a sum of 2?
- 1/36
21. This writer named the title character of The Trumpet of the Swan after jazz musician Louis Armstrong. He created a small, mouse-like boy in Stuart Little. Identify the creator of Templeton, Wilbur, Fern, and the title spider in Charlotte's Web.
- (E(LWYN) B(ROOKS)) WHITE
22. This religious building's altar wall features a fresco of the Last Judgment. Its ceiling shows prophets, sibyls, and scenes from Genesis, including The Creation of Adam. Identify this Italian chapel painted by Michelangelo.
- SISTINE (CHAPEL)
23. This word names both a city and a province in eastern Canada. The city sits on the Saint Lawrence River, and the province was first settled in 1535 by Jacques Cartier. Identify this largely French-speaking region of Canada.
- QUEBEC
24. Examples of these plants include conifers, but also most trees in environments without frost. They are contrasted with deciduous plants. What are these plants that do not lose their leaves in the fall?
- EVERGREEN(S)
25. What is the name given to a pair of lines that do not lie in the same plane and never intersect?
- SKEW
26. The smallest known one of these was created using DNA, and other man-made ones were commonly seen on houses before the 21st century. They are sometimes called feelers, and are found naturally in arthropods. Name these structures on the heads of many insects, used for sensing the environment.
- ANTENNAS (Accept ANTENNAE [an-TEN-ee])
27. This theatrical form is related to a type of puppet theater called bunraku [boon-RAH-koo]. Dating from the 1600s, it relies on mime, singing, and dancing done by performers in full makeup. Only men perform what traditional Japanese drama?
- KABUKI

28. This was the date of one of the worst terrorist attacks in United States history. This date each year is memorialized as "Patriot Day" in the United States. What was this date of the attacks on the World Trade Center and Pentagon?
- 9/11 (2001) September 11th
29. This star of a wordless picture book is a white animal with black nose, ears, and tail. She plays with her favorite red toy until a brown dog pops it, but she soon learns to love its blue replacement. Who is this dog, who receives a ball in a Caldecott-winning Chris Raschka [ROSH-kuh] picture book?
- DAISY
30. What is the simplified expression when the quantity $2X$ squared, close quantity, is all raised to the third power?
- $8X$ (RAISED) TO THE 6TH (POWER)

End of Second Half – Begin Three-Minute Inquiry Period

Extra Questions

- SS-1 This rate reached an all time high at 23.7 percent in June of 1920. This economic condition sees a general rise in prices. Name this process, where money loses value over time.
- INFLATION
- SC-2 These bovines are the largest animals native to North America. They have been extremely important to Native American culture, for food and in making tools. What are these large grazing mammals native to North America?
- (AMERICAN) BISON (Accept (AMERICAN) BUFFALO or BISON BISON)
- M-3 When learning numbers, the first set of numbers learned are the counting numbers, or natural numbers, which include, 1, 2, 3, and so on. The next number learned is zero. What is the name for the set of numbers that includes all of the natural numbers and zero?
- WHOLE (NUMBERS)
- AH-4 This voice of Jay and Kira in The Angry Birds Movie 2 appeared on Seasons 5 and 6 of Dance Moms. She has a teacup Yorkie named BowBow, a nod to this entrepreneur's hair bow business. Who is this Dancing with the Stars winner and headliner of D.R.E.A.M. The Tour?
- (JOJO) SIWA
- LA-5 What type of dependent clause is part of the following sentence? What I had forgotten was that I hadn't done my homework.
- NOUN (CLAUSE)

